ADVERSARY PROCEEDING

No. 05-6022

BRIEF IN SUPPORT OF MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT

Procedural Background

The debtor, Cathy Suzanne Brookshire ("defendant"), was the defendant in a civil action in Forsyth County, North Carolina, and default judgment was entered against her. (Brookshire v. Brookshire, 04 CVS 5209, hereafter, the "Forsyth County lawsuit"). The judgment is Exhibit B to the Complaint in this adversary proceeding. During execution of the judgment, defendant filed her Chapter 7 bankruptcy petition.

At the same time that the Forsyth County lawsuit was commenced, plaintiff Kim C. Brookshire also filed a caveat proceeding on March 20, 2003, challenging a document purporting to be a will that was signed by Florence Cathleen Parker Brookshire ("Mrs. Brookshire"), along with other documents, including the power of attorney relevant to this adversary proceeding. Judgment that the document was not Mrs. Brookshire's will was entered by the Forsyth County Superior Court on September 16, 2005. A copy of the caveat judgment is attached as Exhibit 1.

On May 5, 2005, plaintiffs filed an adversary proceeding before this Court incorporating the findings in the judgment in the Forsyth County lawsuit and alleging the following claims: (1) a resulting or constructive trust in a Hummer H2 vehicle that was in defendant's possession; (2) a lien on the Hummer; (3) breach of fiduciary duty; (4) conversion and misappropriation of funds; and (5) nondischargeability of debt resulting from false pretenses, a false representation or actual fraud, for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, embezzlement, or larceny, and willful and malicious injury by defendant to another. On June 1, 2005, plaintiffs amended the adversary proceeding Complaint to add Edwin Ferguson, the trustee in bankruptcy for defendant, as a party.

In the bankruptcy proceeding, on May 5, 2005, plaintiffs filed an objection to any exemption claimed by defendant in the Hummer. On June 30, 2005, this Court entered an order that plaintiffs' objection to the exemption claimed by defendant in the Hummer was sustained and that Mrs. Brookshire's estate was the rightful owner of the Hummer. On September 12, 2005, the Hummer was sold at auction for approximately $31,000, and those funds were paid into the estate.

On May 11, 2005, defendant filed a motion to dismiss the adversary proceeding. The motion was heard on June 8, 2005, and the Court entered an order denying defendant's motion to dismiss on June 21, 2005.

Plaintiffs now seek summary judgment in the adversary proceeding.

Factual History

Mrs. Brookshire was 80 years old in 2002. She lived by herself, and she needed assistance in managing her day-to-day finances. On June 22, 2000, and again on May 3, 2002, she appointed her son, Kim C. Brookshire, her attorney-in-fact (Exhibits 2 and 3, respectively), and he ensured that Mrs. Brookshire's bills were paid, that Meals on Wheels were delivered to her, that her prescription medications were kept current, that she had a taxi service for transportation (Mrs. Brookshire did not drive), that she had a way to call for help in case she could not get to a telephone, and that other necessities were provided. Affidavit of Teresa G. Brookshire, Exhibit 4.

In March 2003, defendant took Mrs. Brookshire to an attorney's office and oversaw Mrs. Brookshire's signing a durable power of attorney that made defendant Mrs. Brookshire's attorney-in-fact. See Exhibit 5. Defendant took control of Mrs. Brookshire's assets and took them for herself. All of the services arranged by Kim C. Brookshire were cancelled. Affidavit of Teresa G. Brookshire, and Deposition of Cathy Suzanne Brookshire dated September 14, 2004, attached as Exhibit 6, hereinafter the "Deposition," pp. 42, 78-81.

Mrs. Brookshire had no credit card debt when defendant began controlling her assets. Affidavit of Teresa Brookshire. Defendant used Mrs. Brookshire's credit cards for herself and purchased for herself clothes, photography services, vacations, meals, knives, furniture, pet supplies, and gasoline and automobile accessories and services. Deposition, pp. 58-78. Defendant charged at least $6,630.60 to Mrs. Brookshire's credit cards for items which were for defendant's sole use. Id., see also default judgment, Exhibit B to adversary proceeding Complaint. Credit card bills regarding which defendant testified in her deposition are Exhibit 7.

Defendant used Mrs. Brookshire's income and checking account as her own. Defendant spent all of Mrs. Brookshire's savings on herself, by writing checks for items and services for her sole benefit in the amount of at least $30,000. Affidavit of Teresa Brookshire. Copies of the checks are Exhibit 8.

Defendant used her authority as attorney-in-fact to obtain a home equity line of credit in Mrs. Brookshire's name, using Mrs. Brookshire's home as security. Deposition, pp. 55-58. Defendant took $54,952.12 from the home equity line, using the funds to pay her own living expenses, to pay her personal debts, and to buy accessories for her vehicle. Id.

Defendant used her authority as attorney-in-fact to sell Mrs. Brookshire's real property in Alleghany County, North Carolina. Deposition, pp. 31-32. Deed to Alleghany County property signed by defendant, Exhibit 9. Defendant signed all of the real estate sale documents herself and used the sale proceeds to buy a Hummer H2 for herself and to pay personal debts. Deposition, pp. 31-32, 47. The Court determined in the bankruptcy proceeding that the Hummer H2 was rightfully the property of Mrs. Brookshire's estate, as it was subject to a constructive trust. Order dated June 30, 2005.

Defendant took all of Mrs. Brookshire's property, so that Mrs. Brookshire was left without meals, without transportation, and without a way to call for help if she could not reach the telephone. The services that had been set up to provide these things for Mrs. Brookshire were all cancelled because defendant did not pay for them, but instead used all of Mrs. Brookshire's assets for herself. Mrs. Brookshire received notices that her electricity bill was not paid, that her property taxes were not paid, and that her homeowner's insurance had lapsed because of nonpayment of the premium. Deposition, pp. 78-82. Copies of notices of nonpayment are Exhibit 10.

In July 2004, Mrs. Brookshire was found in her home by a neighbor. Mrs. Brookshire was slumped over in a chair and had been unable to get up for days. Mrs. Brookshire was dehydrated and soiled when she was found. She developed an infection from sores, and she died as a result of it. Affidavit of Teresa Brookshire.

The Forsyth County Superior Court entered a default judgment against defendant in this matter on January 13, 2005, in the amount of $341,514.40, to be paid to Mrs. Brookshire's estate.

These facts are undisputed, and most of them were admitted by defendant in her deposition.

Argument

Based upon the undisputed facts, plaintiffs are entitled to judgment as a matter of law. The facts show that defendant committed fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity; she committed embezzlement; she willfully and maliciously injured Mrs. Brookshire, and she perpetrated actual fraud upon Mrs. Brookshire. The judgment in the Forsyth County lawsuit is a debt of defendant resulting from her actions toward Mrs. Brookshire, and that debt should not be discharged.

1. Fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity.

A general discharge does not discharge an individual debtor from any debt for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity. 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(4). To establish such fraud or defalcation, the plaintiffs must show that: (1) there exists an express trust or fiduciary relations of "inequality that justify the imposition on the fiduciary of a special duty, basically to treat his principal's affairs with all the solicitude that he would accord his own affairs," Schaffer v. Dempster, 182 B.R. 790 (N.D. Ill. 1995) (quoting Matter of Marchiando, 13 F.3d 1111, 1116 (7th Cir.), cert denied sub nom. Illinois Dept. of Lottery v. Marchiando, 512 U.S. 1205, 114 S. Ct. 2675, 129 L. Ed. ed 810 (1994); (2) that the debt was caused by the defendant's fraud or defalcation; and (3) the defendant acted as fiduciary to the plaintiff at the time the debt was created. Id., citing, Klingman v. Levinson, 831 F.2d 1292, 1295 (7th Cir. 1987); Green v. Pawlinski (In re Pawlinski), 170 B.R. 380, 388 (Bankr. N.D. Ill. 1994). The term "fiduciary" in the dischargeability context is limited to express or "technical" trusts or trusts created by statute. Express or technical trusts are formed by positive acts of both parties. Id.

In the Schaffer case, the plaintiff failed to demonstrate that the defendant served as a fiduciary, because there was no formal agreement between the plaintiff and the defendant. The court acknowledged, "True, Plaintiff did informally entrust all of his financial affairs to Defendant. However, he apparently relies on the term 'fiduciary' in its popular context. . ." Id. at 802. In this matter, however, defendant was serving Mrs. Brookshire pursuant to a written instrument. The power-of-attorney instrument established a formal relationship between defendant and Mrs. Brookshire, whereby defendant's authority over Mrs. Brookshire's property was expressly set out. Mrs. Brookshire executed the power of attorney, and defendant undertook to act using it, pursuant to the terms of the document. Both parties took positive acts to create the formal fiduciary relationship. The defendant breached her fiduciary duty as established in the power of attorney and committed defalcation, by spending nearly all of Mrs. Brookshire's assets on herself and impoverishing Mrs. Brookshire.

2. Embezzlement.

Included in the same section of the Code as the exception to dischargeability for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity is the exception for a debt resulting from embezzlement. Embezzlement is fraudulent appropriation of property of another by a person to whom the property has been entrusted or into whose hands it has lawfully come. In re Belfry, 862, F.2d 661, 662 (8th Cir. 1988). The embezzlement exception makes debts nondischargeable regardless of whether an express or technical trust exists. Instead, to establish embezzlement, a plaintiff must prove that the debtor was not lawfully entitled to the use of funds for the purposes for which they were in fact used. Id. The elements of embezzlement are: (1) the creditor entrusted property to the debtor; (2) the debtor appropriated the property for a use other than that for which it was entrusted; and (3) the circumstances indicate fraud. In re Dryja, 259 B.R. 629 (N.D. Ohio 2001), citing Brady v. McAllister, 101 F.3d 1165, 1172-73 (6th Cir. 1996).

The undisputed facts in this matter show that these elements of embezzlement are met, and plaintiffs are entitled to judgment as a matter of law:

(1) Mrs. Brookshire entrusted defendant with her property, by making defendant her attorney-in-fact. Defendant had Mrs. Brookshire's checkbook, Deposition, pp. 28, 50-51, had her name added to Mrs. Brookshire's credit card accounts, Deposition, p. 29, and used her authority as attorney-in-fact to sell Mrs. Brookshire's real property. Deposition, pp. 31-32.

(2) Defendant appropriated the property entrusted to her by Mrs. Brookshire for a use other than that for which it was entrusted. Mrs. Brookshire gave defendant her power of attorney for defendant to help her manage her assets. The document by which Mrs. Brookshire entrusted her property to defendant is a North Carolina power of attorney, and the North Carolina courts have construed these documents and have given clear guidance as to the obligations of an agent acting under a North Carolina power of attorney. The agent appointed by a power of attorney has an obligation to act in the best interests of her principal. Estate of Graham v. Morrison, 168 N.C. App. 63, 607 S.E.2d 295, 299 (2005), citing Whitford v. Gaskill, 345 N.C. 475, 478, 480 S.E.2d 690, 692 (1997). An agent acting under a North Carolina power of attorney has a duty to conduct transactions "for the benefit of the principal and [a North Carolina power of attorney] does not authorize the agent to make a gift of the property, or to convey or transfer it without a present consideration inuring to the principal." Id., quoting Honeycutt v. Farmers & Merchants Bank, 126 N.C. App. 816, 818, 487 S.E.2d 166, 167 (1997). Defendant did not use Mrs. Brookshire's assets for the purpose for which they were entrusted to her, but instead used them to buy things for herself, pay her own debts, and take vacations.

(3) The circumstances of defendant's use of Mrs. Brookshire's assets for herself indicate fraud. Mrs. Brookshire was led to believe that the defendant would act in her best interest and manage Mrs. Brookshire's assets for Mrs. Brookshire's benefit. Defendant has admitted that she agreed to serve as attorney-in-fact, and, therefore, it can be presumed that defendant made representations to Mrs. Brookshire that she would faithfully undertake the duties of an attorney-in-fact. Deposition, pp. 106-107. Defendant, however, took so much property from Mrs. Brookshire that Mrs. Brookshire's needs were neglected, and she died as a result of the neglect. At the time of her death, the only asset that Mrs. Brookshire retained was her home, encumbered by more than $55,000 of debt incurred by defendant. These circumstances indicate fraud. Furthermore, "in the case of an agent with the power to manage all the principal's property, it is sufficient to raise a presumption of fraud when the principal transfers property to the agent. Self dealing by the agent is prohibited." Id. at 299-300, quoting Hutchins v. Dowell, 138 N.C. App. 673, 677, 531 S.E.2d 900, 903 (2000).

Defendant, by taking Mrs. Brookshire's property for herself, was not only acting outside the scope of the power of attorney by not acting in Mrs. Brookshire's best interests, but defendant was also acting outside of the authority given to her on the face of the document. A power of attorney must expressly confer the authority to give gifts in order for the attorney-in-fact to be authorized to give gifts. Whitford v. Gaskill, 119 N.C. App. 790, 793, 460 S.E.2d 346. An attorney-in-fact is presumed to act in the best interests of the principal, and because the power to make a gift of the principal's property is potentially adverse to the principal, such power will not be lightly inferred from broad grants of power contained in a general power of attorney. Honeycutt v. Farmers & Merchants Bank, 126 N.C. App. 816, 818-819, 487 S.E.2d 166, 167. Any statements made by a principal purporting to extend an attorney-in-fact's authority would be ineffective and should be excluded from evidence. Honeycutt, 126 N.C. App. 821, 487 S.E.2d 169.

The only power to make gifts of Mrs. Brookshire's property contained in the power of attorney was the standard statutory provisions regarding gifts to charities, individuals other than the attorney-in-fact, and the attorney-in-fact. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 32A-1(14) and (15). This authority is explained in N.C. Gen. Stat. § 32A-2 as the power: "To make gifts to the attorney-in-fact named in the power of attorney or the estate, creditors, or creditors of the estate of the attorney-in-fact, in accordance with the principal's personal history of making or joining in the making of prior gifts."

Mrs. Brookshire did not have a history of making gifts to defendant. As shown in the will prior to the March 2003 document (which has been overturned), Mrs. Brookshire specifically mentioned a $20,000 loan to the defendant. The prior will is Exhibit 11.

Plaintiffs are entitled to judgment as a matter of law that defendant's debt is not dischargeable because it is a result of her embezzlement of Mrs. Brookshire's property.

3. Fraud and false pretenses.

Defendant's actions toward Mrs. Brookshire also fit the definition of the exception to dischargeability for debts "for money, property, services, or an extension, renewal, or refinancing of credit to the extent obtained by - (A) false pretenses, a false representation, or actual fraud, other than a statement respecting the debtor's or an insider's financial condition." 11 U.S.A. § 523 (a)(2)(A). The elements of fraud are: (1) defendant made a representation; (2) at the time of making the representation, defendant knew it was false; (3) defendant made the misrepresentation with the intention and purpose of deceiving the creditor; (4) the creditor relied upon the defendant; and (5) the creditor sustained a loss as a result of the reliance. In re Adkins, 183 B.R. 702, 706 (M.D.N.C. 1995), citing In re Booker, 165 B.R. 164 (M.D.N.C. 1994); In re Criswell, 52 B.R. 184 (E.D. Va. 1985); In re Showalter, 86 B.R. 877 (W.D. Va. 1988).

(1) The misrepresentation can be shown through conduct, and does not require a spoken statement. In re Scarpello, 272 B.R. 691 (N.D. Ill. 2002). Defendant undertook to act as Mrs. Brookshire's agent under her power of attorney. Deposition, pp. 106-107.

Defendant's acting under the power of attorney was in itself conduct that constituted a misrepresentation, in that by acting under the power of attorney, she was obligated to act in Mrs. Brookshire's best interests, when in fact defendant knew that she would not act in Mrs. Brookshire's best interests, but instead would take Mrs. Brookshire's property for herself.

(2) Defendant knew from the time she began acting under authority of the power of attorney that she would use Mrs. Brookshire's assets for herself, and not in the best interests of Mrs. Brookshire. Defendant had no source of income other than what she took from her mother, and defendant had no plans to go to work or to undertake any other method of securing income for herself. Deposition, pp. 9-10.

(3) Defendant intended to deceive Mrs. Brookshire when defendant took Mrs. Brookshire to the attorney's office for the purpose of having Mrs. Brookshire execute the power of attorney and the new will. Deposition, pp. 105-107. Defendant had threatened to harm herself in the past to get money from Mrs. Brookshire (Affidavit of Teresa Brookshire), and defendant's actions in taking nearly all of Mrs. Brookshire's assets and leaving her without the necessities create a reasonable inference that defendant intended to deceive Mrs. Brookshire when defendant induced Mrs. Brookshire to execute the power of attorney and to give defendant control of her assets.

(4) Mrs. Brookshire relied upon defendant's misrepresentation, as evidenced by the fact that she signed the power-of-attorney document and that she allowed defendant to manage her financial affairs.

(5) Defendant obtained at least $241,514.40 from Mrs. Brookshire during a period in which she had undertaken to manage Mrs. Brookshire's assets for her benefit.

Mrs. Brookshire was left impoverished and without meals, without transportation, and without a way to call for help in case she could not reach a telephone, while defendant used Mrs. Brookshire's assets for her own benefit and enjoyment. Defendant should not be discharged from the judgment debt that she incurred as a result of her actions in defrauding her mother.

4. Willful and malicious injury by the debtor to another.

In addition to fitting the nondischargeability exceptions for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, embezzlement, and fraud and false pretenses, defendant's actions that led to the judgment against her also fit the exception for willful and malicious injury by the debtor to another. 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(6). There are two elements for finding that a debt is nondischargeable because of willful and malicious injury by the debtor to another: (1) the conduct must be willful; and (2) the conduct must be malicious. In re Adkins, 183 B.R. 702, 706 (M.D.N.C. 1995). For conduct to be willful, it must be "a deliberate or intentional act which is certain or substantially certain to cause injury." Id. To prove that the conduct was malicious, "a plaintiff is not required to prove specific malice, spite, hatred, or ill-will. 'Implied malice, which may be shown by the acts and conduct of the debtor in the context of the surrounding circumstances, is sufficient under 11 U.S.C. § 523(a)(6).'" Id. at 606-607, quoting St. Paul Fire and Marine Ins. Co. v. Vaughn, 779 F.2d 1003, 1010 (4th Cir. 1985).

Defendant was found in the Forsyth County lawsuit to have converted Mrs. Brookshire's property to her own use, excluding Mrs. Brookshire from the use of the property. Judgment, Exhibit B to adversary proceeding Complaint. The Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals has stated: "While it is true that every act of conversion is not necessarily 'willful and malicious' within the meaning of the statute, . . . nevertheless if the act of conversion is done deliberately and intentionally in knowing disregard of the rights of another, it falls within the statutory exclusion even though there may be an absence of special malice." Bennett v. W.T. Grant Co., 481 F.2d 664 (4th Cir. 1973), citing Davis v. Aetna Acceptance Co., 293 U.S. 328, 55 S. Ct. 151, 79 L. Ed. 393 (1934); McIntyre v. Kavanaugh, 242 U.S. 138, 37 S. Ct. 38, 61 L. Ed. 205 (1916). Conversion, in order to make a debt nondischargeable, requires the wrongful exercise of dominion by one person over the property of another, and it must be shown that the appropriation of property was unauthorized and without the consent of the owner. Sears, Roebuck & Company v. Goycochea, 192 B.R. 847 (D. Md. 1996).

Defendant took Mrs. Brookshire's property through calculated acts. She wrote Mrs. Brookshire's checks for her own purchases. She used all of the money in Mrs. Brookshire's checking account and bounced checks. She had herself added as an authorized user of Mrs. Brookshire's credit cards and used them as her own. She applied for and obtained lines of credit on Mrs. Brookshire's house. She hired a real estate agent, signed a listing agreement, and signed the closing papers, including a deed, for the sale of Mrs. Brookshire's property in Alleghany County, keeping the proceeds of the sale for herself. She left Mrs. Brookshire in her home with no transportation, no Meals on Wheels, and no way to call for help if she could not reach a telephone. These planned, intentional acts show that defendant willfully and maliciously harmed her mother and, therefore, plaintiffs are entitled to judgment as a matter of law that defendant's debt pursuant to the judgment in the Forsyth County lawsuit should not be discharged.

Conclusion

The undisputed evidence before the Court shows that plaintiffs are entitled to judgment as a matter of law, and, therefore, plaintiffs request that the Court enter judgment that defendant's debt pursuant to the judgment in the Forsyth County lawsuit will not be discharged.

JUDGMENT

This caveat proceeding came before the Court for trial on September 13, 2005. Propounder Cathy Suzanne Brookshire appeared pro se. Caveator Kim C. Brookshire was represented by William W. Walker, Esq., and Rebecca L. Smitherman, Esq. Brian C. Thompson, administrator C. T. A. of the estate of Cathleen Brookshire, did not appear in person or by counsel, although he received proper notice of the trial.

At the close of the propounder's evidence, the Court granted the caveator's motion for a directed verdict, pursuant to Rule 50(a), N.C.R.Civ.P.

The Court then submitted the following issue to the jury: "Did the Propounder prove by the greater weight of the evidence that the document she referred to in her testimony was executed according to the requirements of law for a valid attested will?" The jury answered the issue "No."

Now, therefore, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that:

1. The caveat filed by Kim C. Brookshire to the document entitled Last Will And Testament of Florence Cathleen Parker Brookshire, dated March 20, 2003, and admitted to probate by the Clerk of Court on August 2, 2004, is sustained;
2. The document entitled Last Will And Testament of Florence Cathleen Parker Brookshire, dated March 20, 2003, and admitted to probate on August 2, 2004, is void and of no effect;

3. The costs of this proceeding are taxed to Cathy Suzanne Brookshire; and
4. This estate is returned to the jurisdiction of the Clerk of Court for administration as provided by law; provided that this Court retains jurisdiction to hear any motion by caveator for an order taxing attorney fees.

DURABLE POWER OF ATTORNEY

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, that I, FLORENCE CATHLEEN PARKER BROOKSHIRE, the undersigned, of Forsyth County, North Carolina, have made, constituted, and appointed, and by these presents do HEREBY MAKE, CONSTITUTE and APPOINT my son, KIM CHARLTON BROOKSHIRE, my true and lawful attorney-in-fact, for me and in my name, place and stead, on my behalf, giving unto my said attorney-in-fact full power to act in my name, place and stead in any manner which I could if I were personally present in doing and performing the following matters and things:

(1) To collect and receive, hold, manage and invest any and all funds and properties due or payable to me from any and all sources whatsoever, including accounts receivable, interest, dividends and other stock increments, rentals, employee benefits, insurance proceeds, Social Security, Veterans, retirement, disability, and other benefits, tax refunds and rebates or other assets; including but not limited to the right to have free access at any time or times to any safe deposit box or vault to which the principal might have access as lessee or owner, and including the further right to close or open any safe deposit box;

(2) To execute in my behalf any and all legal documents necessary or customary in the transacting of my business affairs and management and protection of my property as herein provided for, including the right to sell or transfer any stocks or bonds held by me;

(3) To prosecute and/or defend in my behalf any legal actions or proceedings necessary or appropriate to carry out the intent of this Power of Attorney and to compromise, settle and agree to any terms reasonable in such actions or proceedings;

(4) To do and perform and to exercise in my behalf all those certain powers enumerated in Section 32A-1 (1) through (15) of the General Statutes of the State of North Carolina, which powers are hereby expressly herein incorporated by reference;

(5) To make any and all decisions necessary for my medical care and attention including medical, hospital and nursing care;

And I do hereby ratify, confirm and approve all matters and things done and performed by my attorney-in-fact, or any substitute hereinafter named, pursuant to and within the scope of authority granted by this Power of Attorney;

This Power of Attorney is executed pursuant to the provisions of Section 32A-8 of the General Statutes of North Carolina, as a durable power of attorney and shall not be affected by my subsequent incapacity or mental incompetence, but continue in effect notwithstanding same; however, in the event it is necessary for the court to appoint a conservator, guardian of my estate, or guardian of my person in any protective proceedings filed in my behalf, I then nominate my attorney-in-fact herein named to serve in said capacity;

Chapter 7

ADVERSARY PROCEEDING

No. 05-6022

AFFIDAVIT OF TERESA G. BROOKSHIRE

Teresa G. Brookshire, being duly sworn, deposes and says:

1. I am married to Kim C. Brookshire ("Kim"), the plaintiff in this action. I am over eighteen years of age and a resident of Guilford County, North Carolina. The statements in this affidavit are based on my personal knowledge.

2. Florence Cathleen Parker Brookshire ("Mrs. Brookshire") was the mother of my husband and Cathy Suzanne Brookshire ("Suzanne").

3. On June 22, 2000, and again on May 3, 2002, Mrs. Brookshire appointed Kim her attorney-in-fact. Exhibits 2 and 3 to the Brief in Support of Plaintiffs' Summary Judgment Motion are copies of the powers of attorney.

4. Kim ensured that Mrs. Brookshire's bills were paid, that Meals on Wheels were delivered to her, that her prescription medications were kept current, that she had a taxi service for transportation, that she had a way to call for help in case she could not get to a telephone, and that other necessities were provided. I assisted him in setting up these services for her.

5. In March 2003, Mrs. Brookshire appointed Suzanne as her attorney-in-fact. Exhibit 5 is the power of attorney appointing Suzanne. Suzanne had convinced Mrs. Brookshire that Kim was stealing from her.

6. The services that Kim had arranged to care for Mrs. Brookshire had been cancelled because Suzanne did not pay for them.

7. In or about April, 2004, Kim received a letter from individuals in Alleghany County requesting $100 that Suzanne owed them from the sale of property that Mrs. Brookshire had owned for decades. A copy was enclosed with Suzanne's signature as power of attorney. I was surprised that Mrs. Brookshire had sold this property, as she was proud of ownership of it. She told me many times how she had made $10 payments on it. This property was for her future in case she ever needed to go into a nursing home. Mrs. Brookshire never indicated to me that she knew that this property had been sold. Exhibit 9 is the deed for the sale of the Alleghany County property.

8. Mrs. Brookshire had been living under constant stress as her bills were not getting paid and she was constantly receiving calls from bill collectors. Notices had been left on her door that her power would be turned off due to non-payment. The Lifeline that we had installed had been removed because Suzanne had not paid the bill and they were harassing Mrs. Brookshire for payment.

9. We received a tax notice from Forsyth County advising that foreclosure action would be initiated if the taxes that were due for 2003 were not paid. I called Suzanne and advised her of this. Suzanne stated that Mrs. Brookshire had no money and that I should pay the tax.

10. On or about June 21, 2004, I received a telephone call from Mrs. Brookshire's next door neighbor who told me that Mrs. Brookshire was in the hospital. Mrs. Brookshire had been found by her cousin, Kay Brown, on Thursday, June 17, 2004 slumped over in a chair, unable to get up.

11. Mrs. Brookshire was released from the hospital in Suzanne's care. When she returned home, Mrs. Brookshire was placed in a chair, without water or a telephone within reach.

12. On Saturday, June 19th, a neighbor went to check on Mrs. Brookshire. She found Mrs. Brookshire slumped over in a chair, begging her to get her some water and a Coke. (Mrs. Brookshire was a diabetic.)

13. Mrs. Brookshire had been unable to get up for days and had nothing to eat or drink.

14. Mrs. Brookshire was again taken to the hospital. Upon my arrival at the hospital, I found Mrs. Brookshire no longer speaking but mumbling.

15. Suzanne told me that Mrs. Brookshire had removed the Lifeline that we had put in because it kept going off and it got on her nerves.

16. Suzanne also told me that she needed to go to Social Services, but did not state why.

17. Suzanne told me that Mrs. Brookshire had a staph infection and that her bottom was broken down extensively.

18. Suzanne repeatedly told me that she had power of attorney, including medical power of attorney.

19. During much of this time, Kim was out of the country on a ship in an unknown location, due to the classified nature of his business as a General Dynamics contractor with the Navy.

20. While Mrs. Brookshire was in the hospital, Suzanne began removing things from her house and throwing away Mrs. Brookshire's property.

21. Suzanne told me that she had removed the deed to burial property (where her father was buried) from Mrs. Brookshire's safety deposit box.

22. Suzanne refused medical treatment for Mrs. Brookshire. Suzanne advised the hospital personnel who tried to help Mrs. Brookshire to stop and instructed them that Mrs. Brookshire was not to be tested.

23. On or about June 26th, I discovered that Mrs. Brookshire was on a floor where they only took vital signs once a day because the patients on that floor were in "palliative care" only. Mrs. Brookshire's vitals were stable.

24. I spoke to Dr. Sheigh, the doctor on call, and he said that he felt like he was in the middle, as Suzanne, the power of attorney, did not want her mother aggressively treated.

25. I went to visit Mrs. Brookshire was found that she did not have an antibiotic drip. I asked the nurse and she advised that the doctor had changed the type of antibiotic and she would get it that afternoon or evening. She also stated that Mrs. Brookshire was not there for treatment, but for comfort care. I was concerned that the nurse did not understand that Mrs. Brookshire was only on that floor because of a shortage of beds. I had Dr. Sheigh paged and expressed my concern. He stated that he had difficulties with the nurses understanding that there was a shortage of beds and he may have Mrs. Brookshire moved to another floor. He also advised that he was considering giving Mrs. Brookshire nutrition, either through an NG tube, IV or stomach feedings. He said that a previous MRI showed that Mrs. Brookshire only had severe arthritis of the spine. Also that an echocardiogram was negative except for some valve damage to her heart, but that this was probably old and had nothing to do with her current condition.

26. I went to Mrs. Brookshire's home to see if I could find any documents that could reveal Mrs. Brookshire's financial status. There had been a key hidden under the air conditioner. The next day a notice appeared on the door instructing any locksmith not to unlock the door for anyone for any reason. It was signed Suzanane Brookshire, POA.

27. I went by the house and took pictures of the 15 large black trash bags Suzanne had thrown out of the house. I loaded them into my Jeep hoping that I could get some information concerning Mrs. Brookshire's circumstances. In the trash bags, I found Mrs. Brookshire's purse, which was empty, her wallet with her last driver's license, her original metal social security card, and various papers. I found overdue bills from Lifeline and Meals on Wheels advising the services were going to be removed because of non-payment. A credit card bill that had $8,200 charges, showing multiple beach and mountain trips. Another credit card bill showing over $2,000 in charges. I also found evidence that a mortgage had been taken out on the home in March 2003 for $35,000 and then upped to $55,000 in March 2004. Numerous overdue light and phone bills and an overdraft on the checking account. The documents I found are Exhibits 7 and 10. Also discarded were items such as nightgowns, panties, Mrs. Brookshire's favorite sweater, pants, and hairbrush. Family photographs and historical family items were also among these items as well as clothes with the price tags still on them.

28. I went to the hospital to check on Mrs. Brookshire. Suzanne told me that she was dying and she had instructed the hospital to remove everything at midnight. I looked as Mrs. Brookshire's vital signs and they were excellent. I looked at her catheter bag and she was putting out urine. Suzanne went further on to tell me that she had gone to the funeral home that day and made the arrangements. She said that she had gotten a silver casket, was only going to have a graveside service, she had picked out a dress for her mother, and wanted to know how to spell my name for the obituary. She said she wasn't going to get any more flowers except for the red roses for the casket spray because it was a waste of money.

29. I sought help for Mrs. Brookshire from hospital officials and the police, but I was told that they could not interfere because Suzanne had the medical power of attorney.

30. I went back to Mrs. Brookshire's room and a man entered the room and said that he was with the Department of Social Services and he needed to be alone with Mrs. Brookshire. He stepped out of the room and asked the nurse if there was a confidential place he could speak with me. I met with Paul Lawrence, DSS Adult Protective Services and shared my concerns and documentation with him. He advised that he would follow up on it. I explained that my ultimate goal was to have Suzanne removed as POA so Mrs. Brookshire could have medical treatment.

31. I went back to work and later called the hospital to see what room Mrs. Brookshire had been moved to. I was informed Mrs. Brookshire had been placed on a confidential basis by her power of attorney and no information (including room number) could be given to anyone. Not one member of the family or friend would be allowed to know her room number. This was the situation from June 30th until the date she died on July 15th.

32. My husband returned on Sunday and I told him everything that had occurred. On Monday he went to the hospital. He was also denied access to see his mother. No one would allow him to see her. On the way out he ran into his sister. He was finally allowed to spend a few minutes with her. She had been moved again.

33. On Tuesday, my husband received a call that it was felt that his mother only had a couple of hours left to live and if he wanted to see her, he needed to come. He called me and I left to meet him at the hospital. While we were in Mrs. Brookshire's room a nurse came in and told me that I had to leave. My husband became upset and asked the nurse to please speak to Suzanne and to see if I could stay. Suzanne refused to allow me to remain. My husband then advised me that we were both leaving. This was the last time my husband saw his mother.

34. On July 15th, my husband received a call that his mother had passed away.

35. After Mrs. Brookshire's death, I saw documents that show that Suzanne spent Mrs. Brookshire's money on herself. Exhibit 8 are checks that Suzanne wrote for her own benefit from Mrs. Brookshire's account.

36. My husband filed a lawsuit against Suzanne for the things she had done to Mrs. Brookshire, and he received a judgment in the lawsuit, but Suzanne filed for bankruptcy when her Hummer was seized by the sheriff.

37. Exhibit 11 is the will the Cathleen had before Suzanne took her to her attorney's office in March of 2003.

5 (10:05 o'clock a.m.)

6 EXAMINATION

7 BY MS. SMITHERMAN:

8 Q. Ms. Brookshire, my name is Rebecca
9 Smitherman. I'm an attorney and I represent your 10 brother, Kim Brookshire, in this lawsuit.

11 And Ms. Lusk, she's a court reporter....

12 A. Uh-huh.

13 Q. She's repeating everything that we're
14 saying into that mask, and also tape recording it,
15 and she'll make a typed transcript of what we say.

16 In this deposition I'm basically going to 17 ask you questions, but I want you to answer to the 18 best of your own personal knowledge -- nothing
19 outside of your own knowledge, just what you know.

20 A. I can't testify to anything I don't know
21 anything about.

22 Q. If any of the questions that I ask are 23 unclear to you or, you know, if they don't make sense
24 or they're confusing, just tell me and I'll rephrase
25 them and try to make clear what I'm asking about.

1 Q. What's your Social Security number?

2 A. My brother does not get it, does he?

3 Q. Well, it will be in the transcript.

4 A. I do not want him to have my Social
5 Security number.

6 Q. Well, this is discoverable information
7 and, you know, if you don't answer the question, I'll
8 ask the court to order you to answer the question.

9 A. I'll have to change my number.
10 242-92-0396.

11 Q. And where do you live?

12 A. 405 Mica Court.

13 Q. Is that in Winston-Salem?

14 A. It's in Winston-Salem.

15 Q. Have you always lived in Winston-Salem?

16 A. Uh-huh.

17 Q. Can you tell me a little bit about your 18 education?

19 A. Two years at Mitchell College in 20 Statesville, three years at Atlantic Christian
21 College in Wilson.

22 Q. Have you had any other kind of training
23 other than your college education?

24 A. On the job, art.

25 Q. So are you an artist?

1 If you want to take a break or you get
2 tired, just let me know and we'll take a break.

3 Now, before we get going, I want to tell
4 you that when I ask you questions, I would like for 5 you not to repeat anything that your mother said to
6 you. There's a statute in North Carolina called a
7 deadman's statute that limits when the statements
8 that a person who is now deceased can be repeated in 9 court, and I don't want to waive that or have those 10 statements come in, so I'm going to ask you not to 11 make any of those statements during the deposition --
12 not to repeat things that your mother has said to 13 you.

14 Do you understand?

15 A. Probably most information I would have 16 would be what she told me.

17 Q. Right. Well, I don't want you to repeat
18 things that she's told you.

19 The first thing I want to ask you about is 20 just some general information.

21 Can you state your full name for the
22 record.

23 A. Cathy Suzanne Brookshire.

24 Q. And what is your age?

25 A. I'm 52.

1 A. Uh-huh.

2 Q. What kind of art do you do?

3 A. Commercial art.

4 Q. What does that mean?

5 A. Designing commercial pieces.

6 Q. Is that graphic design kind of things?

7 A. Yeah.

8 Q. Where do you work?

9 A. I no longer work because I'm not able to.

10 I injured my neck at Hunter Publishing a number of 11 years ago.

12 Q. At Hunter Publishing?

13 A. Leaning over a light table 10, 12 hours a 14 day.

15 Q. So when did you stop working?

16 A. Roughly in '89, '90.

17 Q. Okay, and how do you support yourself now?

18 A. My mom has been helping me for many, many 19 years.

20 Q. Do you receive any disability checks or 21 any ---

22 A. --- No.

23 Q. --- Any money from your job?

24 A. No.

25 Q. Do you have any other income ---

3 (Pages 6 to 9)

1 A. --- No.
 2 Q. [REDACTED] your mother?
 3 A. [REDACTED]
 4 Q. Have you ever been married?
 5 A. No.
 6 Q. Do you have any children?
 7 A. No.
 8 Q. Now, can you tell me about your household
 9 family relationship right now?
 10 A. Well, other than the fact that my brother
 11 doesn't speak and have anything to do with me for 12 whatever reasons he seems to think. I don't know
 13 what his problem is.
 14 Q. Do you have a girlfriend?
 15 A. I have a roommate.
 16 Q. A roommate. Okay.
 17 A. And it's been alleged that that's not a
 18 right relationship some kind of way, and I want to 19 set that straight. I have never been weird in my 20 life. I have no intentions of being weird.
 21 Q. What do you mean by weird?
 22 A. Gay, whatever they call it.
 23 Q. What is your roommate's name?
 24 A. Kyle Peoples.
 25 Q. Are you close friends, though?

1 A. My mom has always liked her. She's always
 2 been kind to her.
 3 Q. Are you friends with Kyle's family?
 4 A. They're all deceased. Her parents are 5 deceased.
 6 Q. How do you guys divvy up paying the bills?
 7 A. Her trust pays the rent and I pay the 8 lights and the water and the gas.
 9 Q. Okay, do you actually sit down once a
 10 month and pay the bills?
 11 A. [REDACTED] just month, yeah.
 12 Q. How long did you live with your parents?
 13 A. All my life.
 14 Q. When did you stop living with them and 15 start living with Kyle?
 16 A. 1980.
 17 Q. Okay, so from the time you were born until 18 1980 did you live with your parents?
 19 A. Except for when I was in college.
 20 Q. Okay, and then after 1980 you lived with 21 Kyle.
 22 What are your parents' names?
 23 A. Charles Hughes Brookshire and Cathleen
 24 Parker Brookshire.
 25 Q. Do you know their dates of birth?

1 A. She is my best friend.
 2 Q. What is her age?
 3 A. Let's see -- 56, I think.
 4 Q. What is her employment?
 5 A. She has been disabled for a number of
 6 years. She had a stroke in 1998.
 7 Q. What was her field before that?
 8 A. She worked at IBM and Eastman Kodak. She 9 had a closed-head injury a number of years ago. She 10 had to quit her job.
 11 She came home, took care of her parents
 12 for many years, and then she had a stroke from too
 13 much care giving. She had to quit that. And as of 14 this point in time Social Security doesn't give her
 15 anything.
 16 Q. She doesn't receive any disability?
 17 A. She has a trust that gives her so much a
 18 month.
 19 Q. Okay.
 20 A. That's what she lives on.
 21 Q. How long have you lived with Kyle?
 22 A. I don't know what difference that makes.
 23 Q. How long have you lived with Kyle?
 24 A. We've been roommates for 24 years.
 25 Q. Is Kyle friendly with your family?

1 A. Daddy was September 5th, 1916 and Mom was
 2 February 5th, 1922.
 3 Q. What was their education?
 4 A. At the time just ever how far high school
 5 went.
 6 Q. Did your father work?
 7 A. Yes.
 8 Q. What did he do?
 9 A. Worked at the post office.
 10 Q. Did he work there his whole life or his 11 whole working career?
 12 A. To my knowledge, that's the only place he 13 ever worked. He was -- before they got married, he 14 was a messenger with Western Union ---
 15 Q. --- Okay.
 16 A. --- Delivering telegrams.
 17 Q. Did your mother ever work?
 18 A. She worked at Summit Street Pharmacy.
 19 Q. How long did she work there?
 20 A. I have no idea.
 21 Q. Do you know when she stopped working
 22 there?
 23 A. No.
 24 Q. Do you have -- was she still working there
 25 when you were living at home?

4 (Pages 10 to 13)

Page 16

1 A. No. Dad made her quit. At the time it
2 wasn't cool for mamas to work, so he wanted her to
3 stay at home with his kids.
4 Q. Did she stay at home when you were a
5 child?
6 A. Uh-huh.
7 Q. What was your father's date of death?
8 A. December 28th, '83.
9 Q. And what was your mother's date of death?
10 A. July 15th, this year.
11 Q. What was your relationship like with your 12 parents?
13 I know it's a broad question.
14 A. Up and down like any family.
15 Q. Were you closer to one of your parents
16 than the other?
17 A. My dad.
18 Q. After your father died in 1983 how often
19 did you see your mother?
20 A. I don't know. Pretty often, though. I
21 don't have a recollection of certain days -- how many 22 days a week or anything. I went over quite a bit.
23 Q. Did you go visit her at her house?
24 A. Yes.
25 Q. Right around the time that your father

1 A. I don't know, because my brother had POA
2 for a while. I don't know when they did that. I
3 have no knowledge of that.
4 Q. Did you -- did you do various things for
5 your mother after your father died up until -- up
6 until the point where you were taking care of her
7 most of the time?
8 A. Uh-huh. Took her out to eat, go to see
9 her a lot, just sit in the yard and talk. She would 10 cook a meal or something and want us to come over.
11 We'd go over and eat.
12 Q. Did your mother love and trust you?
13 A. Uh-huh.
14 Q. Did she rely on you for things?
15 A. Uh-huh.
16 Q. Did she have confidence in you in taking 17 care of her?
18 A. I would tell her things she didn't tell
19 other people. Most things she would confide
20 in me. I wouldn't tell her everything.
21 Q. Did she trust you to be in her house?
22 A. Uh-huh.
23 Q. When did she -- do you -- do you remember
24 when she started needing someone to help her take 25

Page 17

1 died in the 80's, what was her medical condition?
2 Did she have any medical problems then?
3 A. To my knowledge, not that I know of.
4 She's been on thyroid pills her whole life. But up
5 until that point I don't know of anything.
6 Q. Okay.
7 A. She always kept all those kinds of things
8 pretty secret. She didn't like people knowing all of 9 her business, even to telling us anything. She 10 didn't tell us very much.
11 Q. What was her psychological state after 12 your father died?
13 A. Well, like any wife, I guess, you grieve
14 for a long time. She talked about him a lot.
15 Q. In the '80s, after your father died, did
16 she -- was she able to take care of herself?
17 A. Oh, yes. She has always taken care of
18 herself.
19 Q. Was she still able to drive then?
20 A. Oh, yes.
21 Q. And did she pay her own bills and take
22 care of her own finances?
23 A. Uh-huh. She was always very independent.
24 Q. When did she stop taking care of her own
25 finances?

1 care of her -- her affairs, her financial affairs,
2 approximately?
3 A. I guess two or three years ago. I don't
4 know. Like I said, my brother had POA for a while,
5 so I don't know.
6 Q. Uh-huh.
7 A. I didn't keep up with things there for a
8 period of time. I was a couple of years and I went 9 through a lot of stuff and I wasn't
10 around enough for about a year.
11 Q. Where were you?
12 A. I was here in town, but some bad
13 situations were going on in my life.
14 Q. So you didn't visit your mother much
15 during that time?
16 A. I didn't get to see her very much.
17 Q. When your mother was handling her own
18 financial affairs, do you know whether she had credit
19 card debt during that time?
20 A. I guess she did. I don't know. She 21 always had credit cards. Always paid bills all my 22 life.
23 I remember her sitting down writing checks
24 every month, paying stores and different things.
25 Q. You sat with her while she wrote checks?

5 (Pages 14 to 17)

Page 18

1 Is that what you're saying?
 2 A. I can remember seeing her do it.
 3 Q. Uh-huh.
 4 A. But as far as knowing what was what, she
 5 didn't tell things.
 6 Q. Was she living within her means before
 7 other people started to help her handle her financial 8 affairs?
 9 A. I know she had a lot of credit at a lot of 10 stores. As to how much anything was, I don't know.
 11 Q. Okay.
 12 A. I didn't keep up with that.
 13 Q. When did Kim start handling her financial 14 affairs? Do you know?
 15 A. I don't know. I just know -- I think for 16 a year or so. I'm not sure. I don't remember any 17 dates.
 18 Q. When he started handling her financial 19 affairs, were you less involved with her financial 20 affairs than you had been before?
 21 A. I wasn't involved with them before.
 22 [REDACTED] give you money to
 23 [REDACTED]
 24 [REDACTED] have the money.
 25 Q. Did you know Cathleen's neighbors?

Page 19

1 A. Don't know them very well.
 2 Q. Did you know Emily Sechrist, one of
 3 Cathleen's neighbors?
 4 A. Uh-huh.
 5 Q. Did you know her well?
 6 A. Didn't know her very well. Just see her
 7 come and go a lot, just to speak.
 8 Q. Was she friends with your mother?
 9 A. She was friends with Mamma the whole time
 10 they lived on Bellview Street.
 11 Q. Who is Kay Brown?
 12 A. It's Mamma's first cousin.
 13 Q. Did she come to see your mother very 14 often?
 15 A. She would come on Thursdays, usually take 16 mom out to eat and then bring her back home. She 17 would stay a couple of hours and then leave.
 18 Q. What was your relationship with Kay? Do
 19 you get along?
 20 A. Yeah, when I would see her, I did. Didn't
 21 know her very well.
 22 Q. Who is Helen Parsons?
 23 A. My aunt. And she hasn't been around in 24 more than 10 years.
 25 Her and Edith ---

Page 20

1 Q. --- Who is Edith?
 2 A. Another sister-in-law, Curtis's wife,
 3 which is Helen's brother.
 4 They did some things about my granny's
 5 estate a number of years ago, tricked my mom in to 6 signing a paper and gave away her part of the estate.
 7 She didn't know what she was doing to sign it. And I
 8 told her not to do anything without an attorney
 9 looking at it, but she signed it anyway and 10 they have not been on speaking terms for at least 10
 11 years that I know.
 12 Q. Who is Betty Crotts?
 13 A. Kim's friend's mom.
 14 Q. Did Kyle help you in taking care of your 15 mother when you would visit?
 16 A. Yes, uh-huh.
 17 Q. Did she help you -- never mind.
 18 Now, I would like to ask you about some of 19 your assets.
 20 What kind of car do you have?
 21 [REDACTED]
 22 [REDACTED] what make is it, I guess?
 23 [REDACTED]
 24 [REDACTED] years is it?
 25 [REDACTED]

Page 21

1 Q. How many miles does it have on it?
 2 [REDACTED]
 3 [REDACTED] 24,000 miles
 4 [REDACTED] the original price of it.
 5 [REDACTED] couple of dollars.
 6 Q. And do you own it? Did you just buy it
 7 outright?
 8 A. Bought it outright. Mom bought it for me.
 9 Q. What color is it?
 10 A. It's a pewter.
 11 Q. And what's the license plate?
 12 A. Sidepakt.
 13 Q. Can you spell that for me?
 14 A. S-i-d-e-p-o-k-t.
 15 Q. How did -- where did the money to purchase
 16 the vehicle come from?
 17 A. Mom told me that she had to the 18 money in the bank. And she was doing a
 19 lot of work and things and she didn't want
 20 to write checks anymore. She wanted me to take care
 21 of it. I took care of that. And she
 22 [REDACTED] she had been wanting to
 23 buy me a truck for more than a year and she decided 24 [REDACTED] she could do that was to sell the land

1 Q. Do you have a house?
 2 A. I have a house.
 3 Q. Do you own it or rent it?
 4 A. My roommate pays the rent.
 5 Q. But it's rented?
 6 A. Yes, it's a rental house.
 7 Q. Do you own any furniture in the house?
 8 A. I have a bedroom suite that someone else
 9 bought me a number of years ago.
 10 Q. Do you have any art in the house?
 11 A. My photographs is the only art I have.
 12 Q. Do you own any other real estate?
 13 A. No, I sure don't. According to the will,
 14 I own Bellview Street. My mom gave me that.
 15 Q. Do you have any bank accounts?
 16 A. No, I sure don't.
 17 Q. Do you have any retirement accounts?
 18 A. No.
 19 Q. Any annuities, anything like that?
 20 A. I don't have anything anywhere.
 21 Q. Do you own any jewelry?
 22 A. No.
 23 Q. Did you get any jewelry out of Cathleen's
 24 safe deposit box?
 25 A. She gave me jewelry that was in it.

Page 23

1 Q. What pieces of jewelry did you get out of
 2 [REDACTED]
 3 A. [REDACTED] necklaces that were in it.
 4 Q. Did Cathleen have a jewelry box at home?
 5 A. She had a lot of jewelry, a lot of what
 6 you would call costume jewelry -- department store
 7 stuff.
 8 Q. Did she have any other fine jewelry?
 9 A. To my knowledge, no.
 10 Q. [REDACTED] all the fine jewelry that
 11 [REDACTED]
 12 A. [REDACTED]
 13 Q. Have you given anyone your power of 14 attorney to act for you?
 15 A. No.
 16 Q. Have you given anyone gifts of cash since
 17 March of 2003?
 18 A. No.
 19 Q. Have you given anyone gifts of jewelry
 20 since March of 2003?
 21 A. [REDACTED] some of the jewelry because
 22 [REDACTED] there's no way in the world
 23 I could use it all.
 24 Q. [REDACTED] the fine jewelry?
 25 A. [REDACTED] a lady at church who was a

Page 24

1 [REDACTED] she wants jewelry and I wanted
 2 somebody to have it that would take good care of it.
 3 Q. Who was that?
 4 A. A lady at church.
 5 Q. Her name?
 6 A. Joyce Hash.
 7 Q. So do you have any other automobiles other
 8 than the Hummer?
 9 A. No. My truck was stolen a couple -- three 10 years ago and my mom told me then that she planned to 11 replace it for me at some time.
 12 Q. Please don't say things that your mother
 13 told you.
 14 Are you in the process of selling
 15 Cathleen's house?
 16 A. Yes. I had permission to do that.
 17 Q. Are you selling it to the highest bidder?
 18 A. It went to a man who wanted to purchase
 19 it, and the purchase price was based on what other
 20 pieces of real estate in that general area were going
 21 for in the last year.
 22 Q. Do you know the buyer?
 23 A. No, I don't know him.
 24 Q. Did you receive any offers higher than the 25 offer that he submitted to you?

1 A. I received one, but we had already agreed
 2 with this man, and you can't -- once -- I don't know
 3 the ins and outs of legal real estate stuff, but once
 4 the deal was made, I couldn't take any more offers.
 5 Q. Are you using a real estate company?
 6 A. Yes.
 7 Q. What company?
 8 A. ReMax.
 9 Q. Do you have a specific agent?
 10 A. His name is Welton Loftin.
 11 Q. Where do the proceeds of the sale of the 12 house go, in your understanding?
 13 A. It hasn't gone anywhere yet, because they 14 locked it up to where it couldn't close on the 31st
 15 like it was supposed to.
 16 Q. But where do you believe they would go?
 17 A. To pay off the home equity line that was 18 on it, to pay for the funeral and to pay off the 19 other credit cards. It was going to go to pay off
 20 all her bills.
 21 Q. What, if anything, is left -- where would 22 that go?
 23 A. Well, since it was mine, it would be put 24 in my bank account.
 25 Q. Do you have a bank account?

7 (Pages 22 to 25)

1 A. Right now it's in the negative.
 2 Q. [REDACTED]
 3 A. [REDACTED]
 4 Q. Whose name is the house titled in now? Do
 5 you know?
 6 A. It was in my mom's name, but according to 7 the will, that on her death, it would be in my name.
 8 Q. Have you made any purchases of over $1,000
 9 since March of 2003?
 10 A. Yes -- my truck.
 11 Q. Anything else?
 12 A. [REDACTED] of furniture in my
 13 [REDACTED]
 14 Q. What were they?
 15 A. [REDACTED] a workbench and a sofa and
 16 [REDACTED]
 17 Q. Anything else?
 18 A. That's all.
 19 Q. Now, I'm going to ask you some questions
 20 about when you had your mother's power of attorney
 21 and were acting as her -- I'm going to use the word,
 22 attorney-in-fact. That's kind of the name for you
 23 when you're -- when you're using a power of attorney.
 24 A. Uh-huh.
 25 Q. Generally what did you do as

1 them. I couldn't always find one. She would mislay
 2 something once in a while.
 3 Q. Did you check and receive her mail?
 4 A. She would get the mail in. She was
 5 looking after that herself and she always put the 6 bills next to the door.
 7 Q. Did you sign -- sorry.
 8 A. Or supposed to, anyway.
 9 Q. Did you sign things for her on her behalf?
 10 A. [REDACTED]
 11 Q. Did you have control and access to her
 12 bank accounts?
 13 A. Yes.
 14 Q. How many credit cards did Cathleen have 15 when you took over as attorney-in-fact?
 16 A. She had two.
 17 Q. Did you get any additional credit cards
 18 while she was attorney-in-fact -- while you were 19 attorney-in-fact? I'm sorry.
 20 A. No. She'd put my name on the ones that
 21 she had so that I could use them.
 22 Q. What bank accounts did she have when you
 23 took over as attorney-in-fact?
 24 A. Truliant and Bank of America.
 25 Q. Were those the only two?

Page 29

1 attorney-in-fact for her?
 2 A. Kept the bills paid, bought her drugs for
 3 her, go to the grocery store all the time. She 4 always wanted so much cash every month and so I would
 5 get her cash.
 6 Q. How much cash -- how much cash did she
 7 want per month?
 8 A. Usually, three or $400.
 9 Now, what she did with it, I don't know.
 10 That's her business.
 11 Q. Did you go to the bank and get the cash
 12 for her?
 13 A. Yeah. Most of the time, when she got to 14 where she couldn't walk very well, she would send me
 15 to go and get it for her.
 16 Q. [REDACTED] on the bank
 17 [REDACTED] were sufficient to
 18 [REDACTED]
 19 A. [REDACTED]
 20 Q. And did you only get the cash when she had 21 enough money to pay for her expenses?
 22 A. Yes.
 23 Q. Did you organize her bills?
 24 A. Tried my best to organize it, if I could
 25 get her to put them in one place where I could find

1 A. Uh-huh. To my knowledge, that was the
 2 only two.
 3 Q. Were there any balances on her credit card
 4 when you took over as attorney-in-fact?
 5 A. I don't recall what they were.
 6 Q. Do you think there were balances?
 7 A. I know there was on Truliant. She
 8 reinstated the Bank of America card.
 9 Q. What does that mean, reinstating it?
 10 A. She ordered a new card, started using it
 11 again.
 12 Q. Were you authorized to use her credit
 13 cards?
 14 A. Yes, I was an authorized user.
 15 Q. Did you have one under her account with 16 your name on it?
 17 A. She went to the bank and had the lady fix
 18 it so that I could have a card with my name on it to 19 use.
 20 Q. Did Kyle ever help you manage Cathleen's
 21 financial affairs?
 22 A. No. She had no knowledge of anything my 23 mom did financially.
 24 Q. Did you pay the taxes on her home when you
 25 were acting as attorney-in-fact?

8 (Pages 26 to 29)

Page 32

1 A. It was my understanding 2003 was paid when
2 I took over, but I found out this spring that it
3 wasn't, and so I had to pay last year's taxes this
4 time.

5 Q. Did you pay for the lifeline that was in
6 Cathleen's home?

7 A. She paid for it for a long time, and she
8 complained with it the whole time because she kept 9 setting the thing off and that buzzer would scare the 10 daylights out of her. And she told me one day, she 11 said, I'm going to call and get this thing undone. I
12 said, well, Mom, you need to keep it. You might need
13 it in an emergency. She said, well, I'm tired of 14 this thing. I want it out of here.

15 Q. Well, I'm going to ask you again not to 16 repeat things that she said to you, and to -- I don't 17 waive any objections to those -- to those statements.

18 ~~Q. Did she get any money from the sale of the~~ 19 ~~equity line of credit? I'm not sure what the~~
20 ~~amount was, but I think it was from Trillium on Cathleen's~~
21 ~~property.~~

22 ~~Q. She wanted to do that because she wanted~~
23 ~~me to have enough money to pay some debts that~~
24 ~~she had, and she was talking with a few years ago.~~
25 Q. Did she not have sufficient other money?

1 I can't remember her name. She works for Scenic
2 Realty. I'll think of it in a few minutes.

3 Q. Let me know if you do.

4 A. Yeah, I'll let you know.

5 Q. Did you sign the documents as power of
6 attorney when you -- did you sign the real estate
7 closing documents yourself?

8 A. Yes, I signed it for mom.

9 Q. Did you receive the payment for the -- for 10 the real estate?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. What did you do with the check?

13 A. I put it in the bank.

14 Q. In which bank account?

15 A. Bank of America.

16 Q. Was that in Cathleen's account?

17 A. Yes.

18 Q. And where are the proceeds of that sale
19 now?

20 A. She wanted everything spent. She told me
21 that was my inheritance and she wanted it spent. She 22 didn't want anything left because she didn't want
23 anything left to fight over. And she wanted me to 24 have that money.

25 Q. Again, please don't say things that your

Page 33

1 A. No.

2 Q. What was her monthly income?

3 A. A little over $2,000.

4 Q. Did you get the equity line after the
5 Allegheny County property had been sold?

6 A. Yes. She did that.

7 Q. And when was the Allegheny County property
8 sold?

9 A. Last August.

10 Q. Did you go through a real estate agent to 11 sell it?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. And do you remember the approximate amount
14 that the Allegheny property was sold for?

15 A. It sold for 142, but after they took out
16 their commissions and their attorney fees, it left
17 130.

18 Q. Who was the closing attorney in that -- in 19 that transaction?

20 A. I don't remember. I would have to look it
21 up.

22 Q. Do you remember who the real estate agent
23 that you worked with was?

24 A. Welton Loftin. He was with Prudential at 25 the time and a lady that lives in Allegheny County --

1 mother said.

2 A. Well, I don't know how to explain it if I
3 don't tell you that.

4 Q. What monthly expenses did you pay for
5 Cathleen when you were paying her bills for her?

6 A. All her bills that would come. Dentist,
7 eye doctor, all the household bills.

8 Q. Did you make sure that they were all paid
9 on time?

10 A. Uh-huh.

11 Q. As power of attorney or acting under the 12 power of attorney, did you ever access Cathleen's
13 safe deposit box?

14 A. Yeah. She put my name on it.

15 Q. Where was the safe deposit box? What bank
16 was it at?

17 A. It was at Bank of America.

18 Q. Which branch?

19 A. On Stratford Road.

20 Q. When did you access it?

21 A. Whenever she wanted something out of it.

22 Q. Did you remove things from it?

23 A. When she would give me permission to go
24 get it out, yes.

25 Q. What did you take out of it?

9 (Pages 30 to 33)

1 A. I didn't bother it otherwise.
 2 Q. What did you take out of it?
 3 A. The deed for the land.
 4 Q. Anything else?
 5 A. The [REDACTED] that she had in it.
 6 Q. Can you tell me about the bonds?
 7 A. She cashed those out a couple of years
 8 ago.
 9 Q. How many were there?
 10 A. [REDACTED] dollars worth. I don't
 11 remember an exact number, as far as counting them.
 12 Q. Did you remove anything else from the safe
 13 deposit box?
 14 A. No.
 15 Q. Was there any jewelry in the safe deposit
 16 box?
 17 A. Yes. There was jewelry in it the whole
 18 time.
 19 Q. Did you ever remove that?
 20 A. After she died, yes.
 21 Q. What did you take out of the safe deposit
 22 box after she died?
 23 A. Two pieces of jewelry.
 24 Q. What were they?
 25 A. Just a couple of necklaces.

1 A. Huh-uh.
 2 Q. Okay.
 3 A. No. She gave those to me.
 4 Q. Is there anything else in the safe deposit
 5 box?
 6 A. To my knowledge, that's all that's left in 7 it.
 8 [REDACTED] there's a couple of pairs of earrings in
 9 it.
 10 Q. And is her name still on the safe deposit
 11 box card or is it just your name?
 12 A. My name is on it now.
 13 Q. After Cathleen died when did you clean out
 14 her house?
 15 A. After I found out from the doctors that 16 she wasn't going to be coming home ---
 17 Q. --- When was that? Do you remember?
 18 A. --- I started -- I had to clean the 19 refrigerator out. I started giving away her clothes
 20 and stuff. You don't keep clothes.
 21 Q. Do you remember when that was?
 22 A. I only had a chance to go over there maybe
 23 a half a dozen times the whole month of June. I
 24 would have to go get the mail in and check on 25 everything.

1 Q. Was there anything else in the safe
 2 deposit box?
 3 A. There's a bunch of stuff in it.
 4 Q. What else was in it?
 5 A. [REDACTED]
 6 Q. What kind of silver?
 7 A. I don't know. I've not even looked at it.
 8 Q. Well, where is it now?
 9 A. [REDACTED] the safe deposit box.
 10 Q. [REDACTED]
 11 A. Oh, yes.
 12 Q. What else is in the safe deposit box?
 13 A. Lots of old documents, old birth
 14 certificates, deed to Bellview Street, old -- my 15 dad's discharge papers from the Army, all sorts of 16 old papers, old checks.
 17 Q. Is there anything else?
 18 A. Some coins that she gave me several years
 19 ago.
 20 Q. Are those things that are still in the 21 safe deposit box or are those things that were taken
 22 out of the safe deposit box -- the coins?
 23 A. Except for coins, that stuff is still
 24 there, it's all there.
 25 Q. So the coins aren't there?

1 Q. Did you continue to pay Cathleen's bills
 2 while she was in the hospital?
 3 A. Yes. They were paid late, but yeah, I got
 4 them paid. I was sitting with her for 27 days.
 5 Q. Is there anything in the house now ---
 6 A. --- I was there every day.
 7 Q. I'm sorry.
 8 A. Furniture.
 9 Q. What furniture?
 10 A. [REDACTED] everything that was left of her furniture
 11 with the exception of two specific things she gave 12 me.
 13 Q. What were they?
 14 A. Grandfather clock and a little wooden
 15 table that was in the living room.
 16 Q. What else did you throw away from the 17 house?
 18 A. All the junk that was there. She was a
 19 collector. She kept everything -- every card from 20 every person she ever knew, every letter from every 21 person she ever knew, every piece of old clothes I
 22 think all of us ever had. Just everything.
 23 Q. Did you keep any antiques from the house?
 24 A. What would that be?
 25 Q. Well, I'm just trying to figure out what

10 (Pages 34 to 37)

Page 40

1 you kept inside the house versus what you threw away.
2 I'm trying to figure out what is inside the house
3 now.

4 A. Just pieces of furniture is there now.

5 Q. No personal effects?

6 A. No, not anymore.

7 Q. Photographs?

8 A. Threw out a lot of old photographs. I
9 kept a lot of my pictures.

10 Q. In looking at the account records, it
11 seems like there are a lot of bounced checks in 12 Cathleen's account.

13 Was there a problem with that?

14 A. ~~There was no money there.~~

15 ~~There was no money there.~~
16 Q. Did you keep a ledger or any accounting
17 information while you were acting as her
18 attorney-in-fact of the things that you did?

19 A. No. Just have whatever the bank record
20 is, the only record there is.

21 Q. Okay. Now, when you took over as 22 attorney-in-fact, what was Cathleen's health like?

23 A. She was in good shape, stubborn as always.

24 Q. Did she have any medical conditions?

25 A. She had eye drops that she used.

1 A. I took her out to eat a couple of times a
2 week. I took her to the mountains at least every 3 other week.

4 Q. How often?

5 A. She liked to go to Boone to the Daniel
6 Boone Inn and eat, so I would take her up there. We 7 would go eat.

8 Q. Did she go out of the house on her own?

9 A. I took her to go get her hair fixed.

10 Q. Any other places you took her?

11 A. She would take a taxi once in a while to 12 go to the grocery store, if I couldn't go, if I had 13 something else to do.

14 Q. How often did she do that?

15 A. I don't know. She was one of these people
16 that would go to the grocery store three or four days
17 a week. She didn't buy a whole lot of stuff at one
18 time.

19 Q. And that was in 2004 ---

20 A. --- Uh-huh.

21 Q. --- She was still going to the grocery
22 store ---

23 A. --- Uh-huh.

24 Q. --- Three or four times a week?

25 A. Yeah. I would take her over there and she

1 Q. Do you know what those were?

2 A. She had -- for glaucoma, to prevent
3 glaucoma. She was diabetic, and I only learned that
4 about a year and a half ago.

5 Q. What did she do for that?

6 A. Like I said, she always kept all her
7 medical things -- she played her cards real close.
8 She didn't tell me a lot of things.

9 Q. Did she take any medication for diabetes?

10 A. Yeah. She was on Glucophage.

11 Q. Did she have any other medical conditions?

12 A. I think she was on something called 13 Glyceride, but I don't what it was for.

14 Q. Any others?

15 A. Not that I know of. She was always
16 complaining of something hurting.

17 Q. Did you help to give her her medication?

18 A. No, she took her own medications herself.

19 Q. Did you purchase it for her?

20 A. I would go and get it for her, yeah.

21 Q. Did you make sure that her medications
22 stayed refilled?

23 A. Uh-huh.

24 Q. How often did Cathleen get out of the 25 house, for example, in 2004?

1 would get in a little cart and ride around the store,
2 pick out what ever she wanted to eat.

3 Q. ~~But she couldn't drive in 2004, could she?~~
4 A. No.

5 Q. What about ---

6 A. --- She had a wreck several years ago.

7 Q. What year was that? Do you remember?

8 A. I don't remember. But she ran a stop
9 light on Stratford Road and tore her car up, and I
10 had already seen her several months earlier run
11 another stop light at another spot on Stratford Road
12 and it scared the daylights out of me.

13 Q. Is that when she stopped driving?

14 A. And after she had that wreck, I got after 15 her big time. I said, you've got no business in a 16 car. I don't want you to get hurt in a car. I don't 17 want you driving anymore.

18 Q. Is that when she stopped driving?

19 A. She argued with me off and on after that.
20 She kept threatening to go buy a car, but she never 21 did. I would always try and go and take her
22 somewhere whenever I could. If I couldn't, she would 23 get a taxi and go to the store or something.

24 Q. Do you remember when that was, that wreck?

25 A. I have no idea. It was two or three years

1 ago. I don't remember exactly when.

2 Q. Did she have an arrangement with the taxi
3 company to come and pick her up and bill her for it
4 or did she pay as she went?

5 A. She had an arrangement with a taxi cab for 6 a while to pay the bill once a month, and then she 7 didn't want to do that anymore because I was taking 8 her more often -- taking her places. And a lot of 9 times I would show up and the cab would be sitting
10 there waiting for her, and so I would send the cab on 11 and take her wherever it was she was going.

12 Q. Did Cathleen's mental condition ever
13 decline?

14 A. To my knowledge, no.

15 Q. How often did you visit Cathleen in 2004?

16 A. Several times a week, at least every other
17 day. If I wasn't there, I would call and see
18 if she needed anything.

19 Q. How about in 2003?

20 A. Then, too. I was over there all the time.

21 Q. Did Kyle come with you when you would 22 visit?

23 A. Once in a while she would come. More
24 often than not, she would stay home.

25 Q. Did Cathleen's neighbors come visit her?

Page 44

1 A. It's my mom's will that she made last
2 year.

3 Q. Were you with her when she made it?

4 A. I took her down there. She called me and
5 asked if I would take her down to her attorney.

6 Q. And who is her lawyer that you took her
7 to?

8 A. George Phillips.

9 Q. Do you know him?

10 A. Phillips & Badgett.

11 Q. Do you know him?

12 A. I've only seen him a few times through the 13 years. I don't know him well.

14 Q. Have you ever had a conversation with him?

15 A. Whenever I would take mom down there, I've 16 had conversations with him.

17 Q. Did you know what she was doing in her
18 will?

19 A. No, I did not.

20 Q. Has Phillips ever drafted any documents
21 for you?

22 A. For me personally, no.

23 Q. Does Kyle know Mr. Phillips?

24 A. I remember her going to him several years
25 ago for something, but I don't know what. I remember

Page 43

1 A. As far as I know, most of them stopped by
2 every day or so. Usually whenever she was sitting
3 out in the yard, they would stop and sit in the yard
4 for a while.

5 Q. Did you ever leave Cathleen alone without
6 visiting her?

7 Were you ever gone and did not come to 8 visit her?

9 A. I would go backpacking for several days a 10 couple of times. Yeah, I was gone for a couple of 11 weeks last fall.

12 Q. Any other times?

13 A. A week this year.

14 Q. When you were -- were there any other 15 times that you would go for longer periods without
16 visiting her?

17 A. Huh-uh, no. I was always going by.

18 Q. Now, I want to ask you about the will that 19 was done in March of 2003, and I would like to mark
20 this as Exhibit 1. And here's one for you to look 21 at, Suzanne.

22 (* Exhibit 1 was marked *)

23 Q. Do you recognize this?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. What is it?

Page 45

1 her mentioning his name one time. I don't keep up
2 with her affairs.

3 Q. Did you have any conversations with
4 Phillips regarding the provisions of Cathleen's will?

5 A. No. I didn't know what was in it.

6 Q. Did she go to see Phillips anytime before
7 the day that you drove her down there to sign this
8 will?

9 A. If she did, I don't know. She called him
10 often and talked with him on the phone.

11 Q. Did you ever hear her have conversations
12 with him?

13 A. No.

14 Q. Were you ever there when she called him on 15 the phone?

16 A. Again, that's one of those things she told 17 me. That's all I have to go on.

18 Q. Do you know what the contents of this will 19 is saying?

20 A. I do now. I didn't know at the time.

21 Q. Does this will appoint you as the executor
22 of her estate?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. Now, looking down at article three, the 25 bottom of page one ---

12 (Pages 42 to 45)

1 A. --- Uh-huh.
2 Q. --- What does this will do with the --
3 this 831 Bellview Street, is that Cathleen's
4 residence?
5 A. Yes.
6 Q. And what does it do with that?
7 A. It gives it to me.
8 Q. And then to the next page, the 10 acre
9 tract, is that the Alleghany County property?
10 A. Yeah. That was the land that she had at 11 the time but she decided to sell.
12 Q. So this -- when -- when was the sale
13 again?
14 A. It was last summer.
15 Q. When was the property sold?
16 A. Last summer.
17 Q. And this section C, it says I give and 18 devise to my said daughter the Jeep automobile owned
19 by her but currently titled in my name.
20 What does that mean?
21 [REDACTED] been in September of 2011.
22 [REDACTED] it, but she went and got
23 it for me.
24 Q. And it was titled in her name?
25 A. I think

1 Q. So under this would your brother get
2 anything?

3 A. She wanted him to have some things if he
4 wanted it. But he always would tell her that he
5 didn't want anything -- he didn't want a stick of 6 anything that was in that house. And he said that to 7 me two years ago, that he didn't want anything that 8 was there. But I told her, if he ever changed his 9 mind, I would see to it that he got something.

10 Q. Now, are you aware of a previous will to 11 this one? Have you ever seen a previous will to this 12 one?

13 A. No, not until this summer.

14 Q. What do you mean this summer? When do you
15 mean?

16 A. After Mom died, I went to the lockbox and 17 took the will out to bring it to the attorney's
18 office.

19 Q. What was the ---

20 A. --- Which was what I was told to do.

21 Q. Where was the lockbox?

22 A. At Bank of America.

23 Q. Oh, it's the safe deposit box?

24 A. Uh-huh, yeah.

25 Q. So there was a will in the safe deposit

1 Q. Did she make the down payment on it?
2 A. No, there was no down payment necessary.
3 Q. Now, aside from Cathleen's house and
4 everything in it ---
5 A. --- Uh-huh.
6 Q. --- Which is section A and the Alleghany
7 County property, which is section B, and the Jeep
8 where is the Jeep now?
9 A. --- It's sold.
10 Q. Cathleen was that?
11 A. Last summer. Put that money on the truck
12 that she got.
13 Q. So you sold the Jeep and used that money
14 to buy the Hummer?
15 A. Uh-huh, yeah, and put that toward it.
16 Q. In addition to the Alleghany County money?
17 A. Yes.
18 Q. Okay. Aside from these items A, B and C
19 in this article three of the will, what was there in 20 Cathleen's estate?
21 A. Just the things that were in her house. I
22 don't know of anything else any place.
23 Q. So in section D it gives everything else
24 in equal shares to you and your brother.
25 A. Uh-huh.

1 box?

2 A. That's where one usually keeps a will.

3 Q. Was there more than one?

4 A. Yes. There was two, which I didn't know

5 of another one until this summer when I went to get

6 that out.

7 Q. Did you read the other one?

8 A. No.

9 Q. Do you think that the will that was signed

10 in March of 2003 was favorable to you?

11 A. Like I said, I didn't know what was in it

12 when she made it.

13 Q. Having read it now, do you think that it

14 was favorable to you?

15 A. Yes.

16 Q. Now, I want to look at some records that

17 we received from Truliant that are just bank account

18 summaries and that kind of thing.

19 A. Uh-huh.

20 MR. WALKER: Put a staple through

21 that exhibit there.

22 MS. SMITHERMAN: And I would like to

23 mark this stack as Exhibit 2.

24 (* Exhibit 2 was marked *)

25 Q. (Ms. Smitherman) Please turn to the

1 second page, which is an account from March of -- an
2 account statement for March of 2003.

3 Was this -- is this an account statement
4 from your mother's checking account?

5 A. Looks like it is.

6 Q. Now, did she have more than one checking
7 account?

8 A. She's always had more than one checking
9 account.

10 Q. Where were her checking accounts?

11 A. Truliant and Bank of America.

12 Q. On the next page of that March statement
13 -- actually, on the last page of it, it refers to a
14 line of credit. It says new loan, LOC.

15 Did you know about that line of credit?

17 A. No.

18 Q. Do you know what it was for?

19 A. No.

20 Q. Were you writing checks from her account
21 during this time in April of -- yeah, in April of 22 2003?

23 A. For three or four months there she carried
24 checkbooks and she was writing checks, as well as I
25 was paying stuff. And she wrote checks several times

1 Q. Okay. On May -- if you look down further
2 on the next page, on May 19th there was an addition
3 to the line of credit.

4 Do you remember that being taken out, that
5 additional line of credit?

6 A. Is this the right page?

7 Q. Uh-huh. It's right in here.

8 A. No, I don't remember that.

9 Q. This is the -- at the back -- I'm sorry.
10 It's so inconvenient.

11 At the back of this packet, this one is a
12 May 19th application for a line of credit.

13 A. Uh-huh.

14 Q. Could you look at that, and then look at 15 the second page.

16 A. Did you sign that for me?

17 Q. Did you sign that application?

18 A. Yes.

19 Q. Was Cathleen with you when you signed it?

20 A. Yes. She was with me every time anything

21 was signed.

22 Q. Was Kyle with you?

23 A. No.

24 Q. On the next part of this there is another
25 increasing the line of credit on May 22nd.

1 that caused it to bounce, and so I had to get her
2 checkbook to keep her from bouncing things so I could
3 keep track of it all, everything myself --

4 Q. -- Where would she go --

5 A. -- And move it to one checkbook.

6 Q. Where would she go to write checks and how
7 would she get there?

8 A. Usually, the store.

9 Q. What store?

10 A. Grocery store.

11 Q. Is that the main place that she went?

12 A. Uh-huh.

13 Q. Did she go to any other stores?

14 A. Unless I took her, no, unless she went 15 places without my knowledge. She didn't always tell
16 me everything she did.

17 Q. Turn to the next page, which is a
18 statement ending May 31st and there's -- about midway
19 down the page there's Sports Authority, which is a
20 bounced check, and I was just wondering if you knew
21 why she would have written a check to Sports

22 Authority?

23 A. To get an air mattress for me.

24 Q. So that was for something for you?

25 A. Yes.

1 Did you sign that one?

2 A. Yes.

3 Q. Did you put the power of attorney
4 designation?

5 A. No, I didn't write it on there.

6 Q. Why didn't you do that?

7 A. I guess I forgot.

8 Q. Was Cathleen there with you?

9 A. Yes, but I always wrote that on everything
10 else that I signed.

11 Q. Please turn ahead to the next one. This
12 one was June 3rd, 2003.

13 Is this another increasing the line of 14 credit?

15 A. It was going to be, but it didn't go
16 through.

17 Q. Why didn't it go through?

18 A. I don't know what their reason was, but it
19 didn't.

20 Q. Was Cathleen making the payments timely on 21 the lines of credit?

22 A. Yeah.

23 Q. Did you sign that application in June 3rd
24 of 2003?

25 A. If that's this one, yeah.

14 (Pages 50 to 53)

Page 56

1 Q. Yeah.
 2 A. Yeah.
 3 Q. Did you put the power of attorney
 4 designation at the bottom of that page?
 5 A. No. Like I said, I forgot it.
 6 Q. That's it for those.
 7 A. But the girl at the bank didn't say
 8 anything.
 9 Q. Was Cathleen with you when you signed
 10 that?
 11 A. Yes, she was with me. I told you she was 12 with me every time I did something.
 13 Q. Now, let's go back to these accounts that 14 we were looking at.
 15 The next one is June 30th, 2003, and there
 16 are more bounced checks on this one.
 17 When did you take Cathleen's checkbook
 18 away so that she would stop writing additional 19 checks?
 20 A. Last year.
 21 Q. Do you remember when?
 22 A. No, I don't remember when.
 23 Q. By last year, do you mean in 2003?
 24 A. Sometime in '03. I don't remember when.
 25 Q. Now, in June of 2003 there shows up a home

1 A. For her and for myself.
 2 Q. Do you remember who signed the application
 3 for the home equity loan?
 4 A. She was with me. She had to sign those.
 5 Q. Now, moving ahead through these, do you
 6 know what Faye's Wonderland is?
 7 A. I don't remember. I'm not sure.
 8 Q. Do you think that you took Cathleen's
 9 checkbook away before the end of the year in 10 December?
 11 A. It was sometime last winter. I'm not sure
 12 when.
 13 Q. Do you think it was before the end of the 14 year?
 15 A. I think so. Like I said, I'm not sure
 16 exactly when.
 17 Q. Now, the home equity line stayed -- the 18 balance stayed about the same, according to these 19 records, until April of 2004, which is a pretty good 20 ways down into these. And then in April of 2004 the 21 balance increased to $54,000.
 22 A. Yes, the $20,000 increase for in April
 23 of 2004 in the home equity line.
 24 A. To pay some bills, and she got some 25 additional things for my truck.

1 equity line.
 2 A. When was the home equity line
 3 taken out?
 4 A. My mom has been helping me financially for 5 years. There were some bills that had to be paid and 6 she took the loan to help me do that.
 7 Q. How much were those bills?
 8 A. They were several thousand dollars.
 9 Q. Can you remember more specifically how 10 much they were?
 11 A. I don't remember specific numbers, no.
 12 Q. Was it more than $10,000?
 13 A. Yes.
 14 Q. Was it more than 20,000?
 15 A. I don't remember it being more than 16 $20,000.
 17 Q. The balance of the home equity loan was --
 18 in June it was $34,200.
 19 Do you know what all that was used for? A
 20 portion of it was used for those debts ---
 21 A. --- To pay debts.
 22 Q. Do you know what the rest of it was used
 23 for?
 24 A. Living expenses.
 25 Q. For Cathleen?

1 Q. What kind of bills were paid?
 2 A. Utilities that I had that she wanted to
 3 take care of for me.
 4 Q. What kind of obligations?
 5 A. Some bills I had. I don't distinctly
 6 remember what.
 7 Q. Were they like utility bills or credit
 8 card bills?
 9 Do you remember what kind of bills they 10 were?
 11 A. Maybe some credit card payments.
 12 Q. What kind of things did she get for the 13 truck?
 14 A. She bought some wheels and tires for it.
 15 Q. And those two things together totaled
 16 about $20,000?
 17 A. No. Those things were about six, $7,000.
 18 That's all.
 19 Q. What was the other 13 or $14,000 for?
 20 A. Living expenses and paying bills.
 21 Q. What living expenses?
 22 A. Mine.
 23 Q. Do you remember whether anything had to be 24 signed to increase the home equity loan?
 25 A. Yes. I had to sign a document for that.

15 (Pages 54 to 57)

1 Q. Was Cathleen with you when you signed it?

2 A. She did not go that particular day, but
3 she knew about it. I had her permission to do it. I
4 didn't do anything I didn't have her permission for.

5 Q. Now, in the Truliant documents there was a
6 release form, which is, again, in the back -- I
7 should have done a better job organizing this -- for
8 the Department of Social Services -- and you signed
9 -- is that your signature as power of attorney on 10 that form?

11 A. Yes.

12 Q. What was that form for?

13 A. I don't remember what that was for.

14 Q. Now, one of the things in these records is 15 a copy of your power of attorney.

16 A. Uh-huh.

17 Q. Could you look at that and tell me whether 18 that's the power of attorney that you used to conduct
19 your mother's affairs?

20 MR. WALKER: Staple it. Oh, I'm 21 sorry. It's a part of the....

22 MS. SMITHERMAN: It's a part of the 23 packet.

24 THE WITNESS: Yes.

25 MS. SMITHERMAN: And that's part of

1 A. --- She's always bought most of my clothes
2 through the years.

3 Q. And then there is a charge for NAPA Auto
4 Parts.

5 Did Cathleen have a car?

6 A. No, but I had her permission to use it if
7 I needed something.

8 Q. So was that for your truck, that charge?
9 It's the second one.

10 A. Yes, probably so.

11 Q. The next one is Great Outdoor Provision
12 Company and it was on July 3rd.

13 A. Uh-huh.

14 Q. And it was for $315.44. Do you remember
15 what that was for?

16 A. Clothes.

17 Q. Clothes for you or for Cathleen?

18 A. For me. Like I said, she always bought me
19 clothes that I needed or wanted.

20 Q. Was Cathleen with you when you went to 21 that store?

22 A. A lot of trips, yes, she was.

23 Q. Was she always with you when you went and 24 used her credit card?

25 A. Not every time, no.

1 the Exhibit 2 packet.

2 MR. WALKER: Maybe it would be smart
3 to mark it separately at some point.

4 MS. SMITHERMAN: Okay.

5 Q. (Ms. Smitherman) Now, we're going to flip
6 back again.

7 These are the -- the credit card
8 statements from Truliant, and I just want to ask you
9 about some of the charges on the credit card about
10 what they were for and that kind of thing.

11 A. I took my mom on a couple of trips last 12 summer. I took her to the beach and I took her to 13 Gatlinburg -- numerous small trips, one-day trips to 14 the mountains.

15 Q. On the July 25th, 2003, the first charge
16 on there is from Mount Rogers Outfitters ---

17 A. --- Uh-huh.

18 Q. --- For $108.

19 Do you remember what that was for?

20 A. I took my mom to Damascus to eat and to 21 shop. She bought me some clothes.

22 Q. So was that -- was that mainly clothes for 23 you?

24 A. Yes.

25 Q. And then ---

1 Q. There are three charges for Mast General
2 Store in Valle Crucis on July 5th.

3 Do you remember what that was?

4 A. My mom bought her some clothes on that
5 trip.

6 Q. So the charges at Mast General Store were 7 for her clothes?

8 A. Yes.

9 Q. Okay.

10 A. She bought a number of things there in the 11 last few years.

12 Q. And Photo Center, do you remember what
13 that was for?

14 A. Pictures.

15 Q. Were they pictures for Cathleen or were 16 they for you?

17 A. My pictures, but I made pictures of her,
18 so yes, they're for pictures.

19 Q. The next one is another one for Great
20 Outdoor Provision Company for 18.99.

21 Was that something for you again?

22 A. I don't remember. I don't know.

23 Q. The CVS, do you know what that was?

24 A. It's my mom's drugs.

25 Q. Was it consistently that price every

1 month?

2 A. It varied a little bit every month
3 depending on what she had to have.

4 Q. The next charge is for Omega Sports for 5 $150.00. Example 149.78.

6 Do you remember what that was for?

7 A. Probably some sport tops.

8 Q. Would that be for you or for her?

9 A. That would be for me.

10 Q. The next one on there is St. Peter's World
11 Outreach?

12 A. Uh-huh.

13 Q. What is St. Peter's World Outreach?

14 A. It's my church.

15 Q. Do you make donations to it personally?

16 A. Occasionally, yes.

17 Q. Was Cathleen a member of the church?

18 A. No.

19 Q. Is it a charity?

20 A. It's a church.

21 Q. So do you get to write off the donations
22 that you make to it on your taxes?

23 A. I don't ever do that.

24 Q. What denomination is it?

25 A. It's interdenominational.

Page 64

1 Q. The next charge on there is for Doug
2 Brendle's. Do you know what that's for?

3 A. That's a health food store -- vitamins.

4 Q. Were those for you or for Cathleen.

5 A. And I bought Mom vitamins several times,
6 and I bought me vitamins.

7 Q. The next one is Oyster Bay Seafood
8 Restaurant?

9 A. Uh-huh.

10 Q. Did you take Cathleen there?

11 A. I took her there frequently. If I didn't 12 take her, I would bring her a senior catfish with 13 french fries.

14 Q. There's one on here for Pilot House
15 Restaurant in Buxton. Where is that?

16 A. It's on the Outer Banks.

17 Q. Did you take Cathleen there?

18 A. That's the trip to the beach we went on 19 last year.

20 Q. Was there only one trip to the beach that 21 you went on last year?

22 A. I took her two or three years ago. I took 23 her last year. Took her to the mountains. We always 24 went somewhere several times a month.

25 Q. But did you only go to the beach one time

Page 63

1 Q. Does it have a mission?

2 A. Yes. Every church has a mission
3 statement.

4 Q. Do you know what theirs is?

5 A. No. I cannot quote it.

6 Q. Do you have a general idea of what it is?
7 I'm just curious about this place.

8 A. I don't know.

9 Q. Did Cathleen support the St. Peter's World
10 Outreach?

11 A. Yeah. She knew a number of people who 12 were there.

13 Q. Do you know the people who run it?

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. Do they know you?

16 A. Uh-huh.

17 Q. Now, this charge on here, do you know what 18 that was for?

19 A. For what?

20 Q. The charge for St. Peter's World Outreach
21 on the credit card.

22 A. A bible.

23 Q. Did they -- was that for you or for 24 Cathleen?

25 A. That was for me.

1 last year?

2 A. Uh-huh. We only had a chance to go once.

3 Q. Now, there's a charge down here for Kitty
4 Hawk Kites, Carolina Outdoors or something, for 5 108.35.

6 Do you know what that was for?

7 A. A couple of pairs of shorts and a couple
8 of T-shirts.

9 Q. Was that for you or for Cathleen?

10 A. Those are for me.

11 Q. And the next one on there is Birthday
12 Suits?

13 A. That's for some clothes.

14 Q. Was that for you or for Cathleen?

15 A. I bought some shirts.

16 Q. For you?

17 A. Uh-huh.

18 Q. Let's see. And then there are -- on the 19 next page, there are three more Kittyhawk Kites from 20 charges.

21 Do you know what they were for? There's 22 one, two and the third one is at the bottom.

23 A. Probably some clothes.

24 Q. Were those clothes for you again?

25 A. Yes.

17 (Pages 62 to 65)

Page 68

1 Q. And that was the trip that you took to the 2 beach with Cathleen?

3 A. Uh-huh.

4 Q. The next one I want to look at is the 5 November 2003 credit card statement. There's one for 6 Great Outdoor Provision?

7 A. Uh-huh.

8 Q. Would that be for you again?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. For 126.73?

11 And then there's one for Footloggers in 12 Boone for 18.00.

13 Do you know what that was for?

14 A. Oh, clothes for last year.

15 Q. For you?

16 A. Uh-huh.

17 Q. There's one for Flow Chevrolet for 18.19.

18 Was that related to your car?

19 A. Probably an oil change.

20 Q. And then the next one is December 2004

21 (sic). There are charges for Christmas decorations.

22 Do you know what they were for?

23 A. Christmas things for my house.

24 Q. There's a charge for Animal Hospital West.

25 Did Cathleen have any pets?

1 which I would like to mark as Exhibit 3....

2 (* Exhibit 3 was marked *)

3 Q. Which is a letter from CVS regarding an 4 overdue prescription.

5 Did you see that letter?

6 A. Yes. I went and got it for her.

7 Q. Okay.

8 A. She always kept things extra and she had 9 extra pills in her bathroom cabinet. Even when
10 something was due to be filled, she still had a
11 number of things in the cabinet ---

12 Q. --- The next ---

13 A. --- She would fall back on.

14 Q. The next thing I want to show you is a
15 Bank of America credit card statement from August
16 2003, and I would like to mark that as Exhibit 4.

17 (* Exhibit 4 was marked *)

18 MR. WALKER: You need to write the 19 number.

20 You don't have to give it to the court

21 reporter. Staple it.

22 Q. (Ms. Smitherman) Could you look at that,
23 please.

24 Now, I wanted to go through the charges on 25 this one like we did on the other one to see what is

Page 69

1 A. Not recently. But if any tag or not needed
2 anything, she would get it for me.

3 Q. Do you have cats?

4 A. Yes, I have pets.

5 Q. Now, have Cathleen's credit cards been 6 paid off yet?

7 A. No. I was going to do that when the house
8 closed two or three weeks ago.

9 Q. And has the equity line been paid off?

10 A. No. That was going to happen when the 11 house sold.

12 MS. SMITHERMAN: That's all the 13 questions I have for the Truliant documents. I'll 14 give these to you.

15 THE WITNESS: Can we take a break
16 for a couple of minutes?

17 MS. SMITHERMAN: Sure.

18 MR. WALKER: Sure.

19 Go off the record.

20 (11:12-11:21 a.m. - recess)

21 Q. (Ms. Smitherman) Okay, Ms. Brookshire,
22 the next thing I want to ask you about is some unpaid
23 bills.

24 You said earlier that you made sure that 25 Cathleen's bills were paid. I want to show you this,

1 what.

2 First, there's a -- there are some finance
3 charges and some overdraft protection, looks like, to 4 a checking account.

5 Was that where the checking account went
6 over and then the overage was put on the credit card?

7 Do you know what that was?

8 A. They fixed it to link the two so that if
9 there wasn't enough money in the checking account, it
10 would fall back on the credit card to keep a check
11 from bouncing.

12 Q. Okay.

13 A. And my mom set that up.

14 Q. Right here is one from Kitty Hawk Kites
15 again. This one is in Avon, North Carolina.

16 Is that different than the one in 17 Hatteras? Do you know?

18 A. They are a chain of stores out there.
19 There's three or four of them.

20 Q. And that charge was on July 11th, 2003,
21 and that one was for 171.38.

22 Was that for -- for you again?

23 A. Yes.

24 Q. There's another charge for Dillon's Corner
25 in Buxton. What was that? It's the next one down.

18 (Pages 66 to 69)

1 A. Some souvenirs for people at home.
 2 Q. Were they for you -- were the souvenirs
 3 ones that you purchased or the ones that Cathleen
 4 purchased or ---
 5 A. --- She wanted to get a couple of things.
 6 I got a couple of things.
 7 Q. So that was for -- some of it was for you
 8 and some of it was for her?
 9 A. Yes.
 10 Q. There's one for ~~Ride the Wind in Ocracoke~~.
 11 What was that?
 12 A. That's a shop out there.
 13 Q. ~~Do you know whether that charge was for~~ 14 ~~you or for her?~~
 15 A. ~~Probably for me.~~
 16 Q. Let's see, there is ~~Sebago Watersports for~~ 17 ~~$$$ a little bit farther down.~~
 18 Do you know what that was for?
 19 A. ~~It was for a boat trip around Pamlico~~
 20 ~~Sound.~~
 21 Q. ~~Did Cathleen go on that trip?~~
 22 A. ~~No.~~
 23 Q. ~~Who went on the trip?~~
 24 A. ~~My roommate and I and about eight or 10~~
 25 ~~other people.~~

Page 72

1 Q. ~~Oh, okay. But she paid you back, not~~
 2 ~~Cathleen.~~
 3 A. ~~Yes, she paid me back.~~
 4 Q. This charge for ~~Oregon Inlet Fishing~~
 5 ~~Center in Nags Head, what was that for? It's right~~
 6 ~~there.~~
 7 A. T-shirts and some food -- some snack food.
 8 Q. When you all went on the ---
 9 A. --- A T-shirt and some snack food.
 10 Q. Okay.
 11 A. I only bought one shirt there.
 12 Q. ~~Wait, who was the T-shirt for?~~
 13 A. ~~It was mine.~~
 14 Q. When you all went on the ---
 15 A. --- I've always collected T-shirts ---
 16 Q. --- Okay.
 17 A. --- Different places.
 18 Q. ~~When you all went on the boat trip, what~~ 19 ~~did Cathleen do during that time?~~
 20 A. ~~Just waited.~~
 21 Q. ~~Where did she wait?~~
 22 A. ~~There's a restaurant at the dock right~~
 23 ~~there called Jolly Roger. I think the trip lasted~~
 24 ~~about an hour and a half.~~
 25 Q. Okay. Now, here's a charge for the

Page 71

1 Q. Was this payment just for your and your
 2 roommate's tickets?
 3 A. Yes, that's for tickets.
 4 Q. Was Kyle with you on this -- on this whole
 5 trip?
 6 A. Yes, she went, too.
 7 MR. WALKER: Where were you staying?
 8 Q. (Ms. Smitherman) So where did you stay?
 9 A. The Holiday Inn.
 10 MR. WALKER: In what town?
 11 THE WITNESS: Hatteras Village.
 12 Q. (Ms. Smitherman) Did you all stay in one
 13 room?
 14 A. Yes. We've been to the Outer Banks a
 15 couple of times in the last four or five years.
 16 Q. So were all the restaurant charges meals
 17 for you and Cathleen and Kyle?
 18 A. Uh-huh.
 19 Q. Did Kyle pay for anything on the trip?
 20 A. Yes, whatever souvenirs she got.
 21 Q. ~~Did Cathleen pay for everyone's room and~~
 22 ~~food on the whole trip?~~
 23 A. ~~Sam paid me back for some of the food.~~
 24 Q. ~~Who is Sam?~~
 25 A. That's Kyle's nickname, Sam.

Page 73

1 Holiday Inn Express. Is that where you stayed?
 2 A. Yes.
 3 Q. How many nights did you stay? Do you
 4 remember?
 5 A. That's for a week. I think five nights.
 6 Q. And that was for everyone's lodging?
 7 A. Uh-huh.
 8 Q. Yours and Kyle and Cathleen?
 9 A. Yes.
 10 Q. Hatteras Landing Provision -- it's the one
 11 under the Holiday Inn?
 12 A. Uh-huh.
 13 Q. Do you remember what that was?
 14 A. Food. Food and snacks.
 15 Q. ~~Farther down there's one for Kitty Hawk~~
 16 ~~Sports for $390.~~
 17 ~~Do you know what that one was?~~
 18 A. ~~That was for clothes.~~
 19 Q. ~~Clothes for Cathleen or for you?~~
 20 A. ~~Those are mine.~~
 21 Q. Were any of those clothes for Kyle?
 22 A. No.
 23 Q. Then the next one down is for ~~Kitty Hawk~~
 24 ~~Kites and it's for $58.84.~~
 25 ~~Do you know what that was?~~

19 (Pages 70 to 73)

Page 74

1 A. A couple of T-shirts.
 2 Q. Were those for you?
 3 A. Yes. Some of their shirts are not cheap.
 4 Some of them are about 25, $30 apiece.
 5 Q. Farther down there's a charge for a
 6 Comfort Inn in Nags Head. What was that?
 7 A. We spent the night up there.
 8 Q. And again, that was for you and Kyle and
 9 Cathleen?
 10 A. Uh-huh.
 11 Q. And ---
 12 A. --- Spent the whole day getting that far,
 13 and it was too late in the day to try and go any 14 further, so we just spent the night.
 15 Q. The next one that I want to ask you about 16 is Kelly Hawk Kings for $105.88.
 17 What was that for?
 18 A. A jacket and a couple of T-shirts.
 19 Q. For you?
 20 A. Yes.
 21 Q. There are several charges in here for gas
 22 stations.
 23 Were those for the gas to pay for the 24 trip?
 25 A. Yeah.

1 Q. Were you all in the Hummer?
 2 A. No. I had the Jeep then.
 3 Q. Okay. Again, there's -- on the next page
 4 of this there are finance charges and overdraft
 5 charges.
 6 Did you know that you were -- that you
 7 were bouncing checks in the checking account at that
 8 time?
 9 A. I knew of a couple that bounced, but I
 10 took care of it right away. I'm not exactly the 11 greatest mathematician in the world.
 12 Q. It looks like you were in Duck, North
 13 Carolina, on July 15th, and then on July 17th you
 14 were in Tennessee -- or July 19th in Tennessee. Is 15 that right?
 16 See, there's the Duck one and then
 17 Tennessee is down here.
 18 A. Yes. That was a trip to Gatlinburg that 19 we went on.
 20 Q. Who went on that trip?
 21 A. Just me and my mom.
 22 Q. Kyle didn't go on that one?
 23 A. No.
 24 Q. What did you buy at the Smoky Mountain
 25 Knife Works for $139?

Page 76

1 A. My mom got me a pair of knives for my
 2 knife collection.
 3 Q. And the Family Inns of Gatlinburg, was
 4 that your hotel?
 5 A. Uh-huh.
 6 Q. The Happy Hiker in Gatlinburg for 111.64,
 7 was that for you or for your mom?
 8 A. That was for me.
 9 Q. Okay, and then there are a couple of
 10 charges for a place called Take a Hike in Black
 11 Mountain, one for $165.79 and one for $18.14.
 12 Were those for you?
 13 A. Yes. My mom bought me some things there.
 14 She liked to shop.
 15 Q. When you bought these clothes, did you
 16 sign the credit card receipt or did she?
 17 A. I signed them. And yes, she went in and 18 went shopping with me.
 19 Q. So she was there beside you when you
 20 signed the credit card receipt?
 21 A. All the time.
 22 Q. Why didn't she sign them?
 23 A. Except when I go in a filling station.
 24 She didn't want to get out and go in a filling
 25 station.

1 Q. Why didn't she sign the credit cards if
 2 she was there?
 3 A. She didn't want to do it.
 4 Q. The next one is a bill for Triad Photo
 5 Center for $425.79.
 6 A. Uh-huh.
 7 Q. What was that for?
 8 A. A lot of rolls of film.
 9 Q. Were they photographs that you kept?
 10 A. Yes. I'm a photographer.
 11 Q. Again, on the next page, there are some 12 more finance charges and some more -- it looks like
 13 -- a finance charge I guess -- is a finance charge
 14 where the credit card bill was not paid?
 15 A. Probably where it was three or four days
 16 late.
 17 Q. And then there's another -- on the 29th
 18 another overdraft protection.
 19 So that's three overdraft protections in 20 this month where money was transferred to the 21 checking account. Is that right?
 22 A. Uh-huh.
 23 Q. The charges for Pet Supplies Plus, was 24 that for your pets?
 25 A. Yes, my dog and my cat.

20 (Pages 74 to 77)

1 Q. And did you pay these credit card bills?
 2 A. Yes, I kept them paid.
 3 Q. That's all I have for that one.
 4 A. I paid it off last year.
 5 Q. When?
 6 A. In August.

7 MS. SMITHERMAN: I'd like to mark
 8 this as Exhibit 5.

9 (* Exhibit 5 was marked *)
 10 Q. (Ms. Smitherman) This is a letter from 11 Senior Services.

12 Have you seen that letter?
 13 A. No, I have not seen this.

14 Q. Okay.
 15 A. I have not seen that.

16 MS. SMITHERMAN: Should I take it
 17 out?

18 MR. WALKER: No. You can still ask
 19 her about the things discussed in there.

20 MS. SMITHERMAN: Okay.
 21 Q. (Ms. Smitherman) This is -- this is a
 22 letter from Senior Services about unpaid -- unpaid
 23 fees for services.

24 Did Cathleen go to Senior Services for
 25 anything?

1 Q. It wasn't disconnected?
 2 A. Yeah. She wanted it disconnected. She
 3 did that. I didn't have anything to do with that.

4 Q. Was it disconnected because the bill
 5 wasn't paid?

6 A. It was disconnected because she didn't
 7 want it anymore, and I paid the bill for it.

8 Q. The next one is a Duke Power bill from 9 February of 2004 to March of 2004.

10 MR. WALKER: Stick in a blank space.
 11 (* Exhibit 7 was marked *)

12 Q. (Ms. Smitherman) Have you seen that one?

13 A. Yes. It was paid late, but it was paid.

14 Q. And does it have a disconnect notice on 15 it?

16 A. They all do.

17 Q. Did the disconnect notices bother your 18 mother at all?

19 A. No.

20 MS. SMITHERMAN: I'd like to mark
 21 this letter as Exhibit 8.

22 (* Exhibit 8 was marked *)

23 Q. (Ms. Smitherman) It's two pages from the 24 Forsyth County Tax Administration.
 25 Have you seen that?

Page 81

1 A. They brought her Meals on Wheels, but she
 2 canceled it. She didn't eat 95 percent of the food
 3 they brought. She would drink the juice and maybe
 4 eat a little of the macaroni, if it was a day there
 5 was macaroni on it. Other than that, she never ate
 6 it. She would have rather gone to the store and 7 bought her own food and fixed it.

8 Q. Did you keep the bills paid for Senior
 9 Services?

10 A. Yes, up until the last couple of months.

11 Q. Why weren't they paid then?

12 A. I didn't have the bill. Like I said, she 13 mislaid a number of things and I didn't find it until 14 almost too late.

15 Q. Okay.

16 A. It got paid once I did find it. But I had 17 a hard time ever getting -- to get her to leave the 18 bills in one spot.

19 Q. Okay, this is a -- I would like to mark
 20 this as Exhibit 6....

21 (* Exhibit 6 was marked *)

22 Q. And this is a bill from Lifeline regarding 23 late payment.

24 A. Yes. I got those people paid off when she 25 called them and canceled it.

1 A. Yes. They were paid this summer.

2 Q. Why were the taxes late?

3 A. She told me Kim had paid them last year.
 4 But then I found out in late May that he had not paid
 5 them, and so I had to take care of that at the end of 6 June.

7 MS. SMITHERMAN: Okay, I'd like to
 8 mark this as Exhibit 9.

9 (* Exhibit 9 was marked *)

10 Q. (Ms. Smitherman) Have you seen this
 11 before?

12 A. Yes.

13 Q. What is that?

14 A. It's for the insurance on the house.

15 Q. Was the insurance on the -- had the 16 insurance on the house lapsed? Is that what that 17 letter says?

18 A. Yeah, it lapsed last year. Again, I had 19 no knowledge of this and I reinstated it late this 20 spring.

21 Q. Okay.

22 A. And because Mom was in the hospital, I
 23 never got that bill paid.

24 Q. So is the house -- does it have any 25 insurance now?

21 (Pages 78 to 81)

Page 82

1 A. I don't know.
 2 MS. SMITHERMAN: I would like to
 3 mark this as Exhibit 10.
 4 (* Exhibit 10 was marked *)
 5 Q. (Ms. Smitherman) Have you seen this
 6 before?
 7 A. No.
 8 Q. Okay.
 9 A. I've not seen that before.
 10 Q. Were you aware that -- did you know
 11 Cathleen had applied for a personal loan for $5,000
 12 from CitiFinancial?
 13 A. No, I had no knowledge of that.
 14 Q. When you took over as attorney in fact,
 15 was your mother's house paid for or did she still 16 have a mortgage on it?
 17 A. I don't know.
 18 Q. When she was her -- so she didn't have a 19 mortgage payment at that time, did she?
 20 A. No.
 21 Q. And what was her monthly income?
 22 A. To my knowledge, a little over $2,000.
 23 Q. What expenses did Cathleen have to pay for 24 herself?
 25 A. Just her usual bills, the household bills.

Page 83

1 doctor bills.
 2 Q. Can you go into some detail and explain
 3 what those bills were?
 4 A. The lights, the water, phone, cable.
 5 Q. Do you remember about how much they were?
 6 A. Depending on the time of year. The light
 7 bill is always more in the wintertime.
 8 Q. Do you remember what the range was?
 9 A. I don't know. Probably 400 -- $400 or so
 10 a month.
 11 Q. And what about the other bills? What
 12 about water?
 13 A. Doctor bills. Pay water every other
 14 month.
 15 Q. Do you remember what it was?
 16 A. Usually 20, 30 something.
 17 Q. Did Cathleen have insurance?
 18 A. What kind of insurance?
 19 Q. Insurance that helped to offset the cost
 20 of her doctor bills?
 21 A. Yes. She had Medicare.
 22 Q. Did she have any supplemental insurance in 23 addition to Medicare?
 24 A. I only knew about Medicare. I think she 25 had American Postal Workers there for a while.

Page 84

1 Q. Do you remember -- do you remember
 2 approximately ---
 3 A. --- I just remember paying Medicare.
 4 Q. I'm sorry. Could you say that again?
 5 A. I just remember paying Medicare a number
 6 of times.
 7 Q. Do you remember approximately how much per
 8 month you paid for her doctor bills?
 9 A. Whatever the dentist or eye doctor was, I
 10 guess I paid that.
 11 Q. Do you remember about how much it was?
 12 A. One dentist bill was about 300 and 13 something one month.
 14 Q. Was it always that high?
 15 A. Most of the time -- most of the time it
 16 was about $100 or so.
 17 Q. Okay, so we have the electric bill and the 18 water bill and doctor bills.
 19 What other bills were there?
 20 A. Phone and cable.
 21 Q. Do you remember about how much ---
 22 A. --- I paid a cable every month.
 23 Q. Do you remember about how much the cable
 24 bill was?
 25 A. It was usually 40 something.

Page 85

1 Q. Do you remember about how much the phone
 2 bill was?
 3 A. Umm, 40 or 50 something most of the time.
 4 A time or two it was about 80 or 90 something.
 5 Q. So it sounds like ---
 6 A. --- She always called her cousin a lot. I
 7 don't know who else she called. I didn't keep up
 8 with who she was making phone calls to.
 9 Q. Cathleen had $2,000 of income a month
 10 and she was making expenses?
 11 A. Right.
 12 Q. Were the lines of credit in the home
 13 equity loan mostly to cover your expenses?
 14 A. I was mainly to cover my expenses.
 15 Q. Now, you said when you went to the bank to 16 take out the lines of credit in the home equity loan
 17 that Cathleen was with you ---
 18 A. --- Uh-huh.
 19 Q. --- Almost every time, but not every time.
 20 Right?
 21 A. Yes, except for the last time. But she 22 still had to sign the papers for it. I had to take 23 them to her.
 24 Q. On the sheets where just you signed the 25 papers, why didn't she sign it if she was there?

22 (Pages 82 to 85)

1 A. She had to sign the other -- there are
2 other documents that she signed. I had to take them
3 to her to get her to sign them.

4 Q. Well, the ones that Truliant gave us, this
5 is back in Exhibit 2, these are all the ones that 6 they gave us, all the signature pages that they had.
7 That's it.

8 A. She signed everything ---

9 Q. --- Now, looking ---

10 A. --- Everything that was given to me for 11 her to sign, she signed.

12 Q. But looking farther in, the loan
13 applications, these were signed by you alone. Is 14 that right?

15 This first one from April was signed by 16 her.

17 A. Uh-huh.

18 Q. Is that right?

19 A. Yes.

20 MR. WALKER: What were the 21 circumstances of her signing that?

22 Did she sign it in the bank or did you
23 take it home to her to have her sign it?

24 THE WITNESS: She signed it in the
25 bank. Everything that she did, she either signed it

1 A. --- But she knew about it.

2 Q. Okay.

3 A. She told me to do it.

4 Q. So she was ---

5 A. --- I was only doing what I was told to 6 do.

7 Q. So she was present at the bank and they
8 allowed just you to sign things in her accounts?

9 A. I said except for the last time.

10 Q. Right. But other than that ---

11 A. --- Other than that, she was there, yes.

12 Q. And the bank allowed you to just sign it
13 for her ---

14 A. --- Uh-huh.

15 Q. --- Even though she was present. Okay.

16 Now, have you gone to the clerk's office
17 and filed Cathleen's will with the clerk of court?

18 A. Yes. I had an appointment for July 16th.

19 I had to wait a week to get that. The attorney was 20 busy the entire week.

21 Q. What attorney?

22 A. Mr. Badgett.

23 Q. Okay.

24 A. I did not know that my mom was going to 25 die on the 15th. Nobody knows those things. But it

1 herself or I had her permission to do.

2 Q. (Ms. Smitherman) Now, this one is May
3 18th, 2003.

4 A. Uh-huh.

5 Q. And this one you alone signed. Is that
6 right?

7 A. Yes. She wanted me to sign it.

8 Q. So was she at the bank with you?

9 A. Yes.

10 Q. And the bank did not require her to sign
11 it?

12 A. No. She wanted me to sign it and I signed
13 it. Everything that they required her to sign, she 14 signed.

15 Q. Now ---

16 A. --- A couple of things I was told that my 17 signature was all that was necessary. That's all I
18 signed.

19 Q. Was she there when you signed?

20 A. The last time I went, she wasn't there.

21 Q. Which one was that? Do you remember about 22 when that was?

23 A. Whatever the last date was. I don't 24 remember when.

25 Q. Okay, now ---

1 happened to be for the next day and I went.

2 He read the will, he explained it to me.

3 He said all you have to do is take it and probate it.

4 And he said there's nothing here for you to

5 administer. He said, your mom left you everything.

6 He explained that the will became a deed
7 to the house when she died so, therefore, he didn't
8 have to make another deed.

9 Q. What did ---

10 A. --- I just did what he told me to do.

11 Q. What did ---

12 A. --- And I asked him -- I said, well, I

13 need to sell it to pay the bills. Can I do that?

14 And he said yes, go ahead and sell it.

15 Q. Why did you make an appointment with him
16 before then?

17 A. I had some questions I wanted to ask him
18 about.

19 I never had to deal with a parent dying
20 before and being the only one stuck having to look
21 after anything.

22 And my brother has been gone for more than 23 a year. He walked out on her last year, told her
24 goodbye, good luck. She tried to call him two or 25 three times that I knew of. He hung up on her. He

1 didn't show up for more than a year.

2 Q. So you were going to the lawyer to seek
3 advice for when Cathleen died?

4 A. Yeah. I needed to know what do I do now,
5 what do I do next. I had to have some advice.

6 Q. Did you say earlier that you only got the 7 will out of the safe deposit box after she died?

8 A. Yes, the next day, on Friday, after she
9 passed away on Thursday.

10 Q. Did you have a copy of the will you were 11 taking to Badgett to talk about?

12 A. Yes. I took the copy out of the box to 13 take to him, but he had one already in their file.
14 So as it turns out, I didn't need to get it out and 15 take it.

16 I asked the lady on the phone when I
17 called for an appointment, I said, do I bring the 18 will? What do I do? And she said, well, if you have 19 it, bring it with you. She said, do you know where 20 it is, and I said yes, it's in her lockbox. And she 21 said, well, go get it and bring it. But Mr. Badgett
22 already had a copy of it.

23 Q. When you went to the clerk, what did you
24 tell the clerk of court?

25 A. I just answered the questions that they

Page 91

1 had on the one page form they have. I answered them
2 and signed it.

3 Q. Why didn't you list the house as an asset
4 of Cathleen's?

5 A. I don't know. I probably wasn't asked.

6 Q. Now, when you -- now, after Cathleen died
7 and you went to the safe deposit box, was only your 8 signature required?

9 A. Only my signature was required, because my 10 mom fixed it that way. She fixed it as a right of 11 survivorship, that if anything happened to her, I
12 could still get in it and get what I needed.

13 Q. Now, earlier you had talked about
14 receiving some coins out of the safe deposit box.

15 Do you know what the value of those was,
16 approximately?

17 A. I have no earthly idea of what they're 18 worth.

19 Q. What kind of coins are they?

20 A. Some silver dollars, some 50 cent pieces,
21 some Roosevelt dimes.

22 Q. How many were there?

23 A. Probably three or four silver dollars, a 24 few 50 cent pieces, a few quarters, and $14.70 in 25 dimes.

1 Q. Do you have any of the receipts from
2 Cathleen's bills that you paid?

3 A. No. I am not one to keep receipts, stack
4 up paper and stuff.

5 Q. Do you remember which taxi company it was 6 that would sometimes come and pick her up?

7 A. Blue Bird Taxi.

8 Q. How old was your mother when she died?

9 A. Eighty-two.

10 Q. And what did she die from?

11 A. Organ failure as a result of a blood
12 infection, is my understanding.

13 Q. Who were her doctors?

14 A. John McManess. There were two more, but I
15 don't remember the other two. That's in the medical 16 record.

17 Q. Did your mother ever buy anything for Kim
18 or give him any money like she gave you?

19 A. If she ever bought him anything, I don't 20 know about it. I have no knowledge of that.

21 Q. Did she ever pay any of his bills?

22 A. As far as I know, no.

23 Q. And I'm kind of jumping all over the 24 place.

25 A. It's another one of those things where she

Page 93

1 said he's got a big job, he makes all this money, and
2 she said, I'm trying to take care of you.

3 Q. Where is the St. Peter's World Outreach
4 Church?

5 A. It's on Old Lexington Road.

6 Q. Do you know the address?

7 A. It's 3683 Old Lexington Road.

8 Q. And I want to ask you a little more about
9 the debt that your mother paid for you.

10 A. Unhuh.

11 Q. About what they were?

12 A. Some other credit cards debts.

13 Q. Anything else?

14 A. Right off, I can't think of what they
15 were. Some money I had borrowed from different
16 people through the years.

17 Q. Okay.

18 A. Paid them back.

19 Q. I would like for us to look at this power
20 of attorney again, and I want to mark this as a
21 separate exhibit.

22 What number is it -- this will be Exhibit

23 11.

24 (* Exhibit 11 was marked *)

25 Q. Here, Suzanne, if you could take a look at

24 (Pages 90 to 93)

1 this one.
 2 Is this the same as the one that you
 3 looked at in the bank records, only not as smushed in 4 size?
 5 A. Yeah, same one.
 6 Q. Were you with Cathleen when she signed
 7 this?
 8 A. I look her down there to make her papers
 9 like she wanted to make sure that is all that had to 10 do with anything was take her down there.
 11 Q. Was this on the same day when she did the 12 new will?
 13 A. I'm assuming so.
 14 Q. Why did she make you her attorney-in-fact?
 15 A. Because Kim walked out and left her.
 16 Q. Did she trust you?
 17 A. Yeah, she trusted me.
 18 Q. Did she have confidence in you to act on 19 her behalf?
 20 A. Yeah.
 21 Q. Did she believe that you would act in 22 her best interest?
 23 A. Yeah.
 24 Q. And did she have faith in you?
 25 A. Yeah.

1 Q. Was there a separate health care power of
 2 attorney that was executed at this time, a separate
 3 piece of paper?
 4 A. Not to my knowledge.
 5 Q. Did you have the authority to make
 6 Cathleen's health care decisions after she became
 7 unable to do so herself?
 8 A. She told me she had a living will.
 9 Q. Do you have a copy of that?
 10 A. It's in the lockbox. And again, it had 11 one of these stamps on it at the register of deeds.
 12 Q. Did you make decisions for Cathleen when 13 she was unable to do so herself when she was in the 14 hospital?
 15 A. Yes.
 16 MS. SMITHERMAN: Okay, that's all
 17 the questions I have.
 18 THE WITNESS: I was told I had the 19 authority to do that.
 20 Q. (Ms. Smitherman) By whom?
 21 A. The attorneys at the hospital. The 22 doctors told me that I had the health care POA. They
 23 had their people look at the living will and the POA
 24 that I had. I was told that covered everything.
 25 Q. Now, we don't have a copy of the health

Page 96

1 care POA and we had sent you earlier a request for
 2 production of documents for yesterday, a list of
 3 documents that we wanted you to bring here.
 4 A. Uh-huh.
 5 Q. Why didn't you bring those?
 6 A. I don't have them yet. I'm still trying
 7 to get an attorney to do this thing for me.
 8 MS. SMITHERMAN: I believe that's
 9 all the questions I have.
 10 EXAMINATION
 11 BY MR. WALKER:
 12 Q. Ms. Brookshire, do you have monthly
 13 statements from the Bank of America and Truliant
 14 accounts?
 15 A. The Bank of America is getting
 16 those statements for me. I don't have them yet.
 17 Q. So the answer to my question is ---
 18 A. --- I have to go -- I have to go by there
 19 and pick them up.
 20 Q. You don't have any in your possession
 21 right now?
 22 A. No, I do not.
 23 Q. Do you have any canceled checks of your 24 mother's?
 25 A. No. The bank just sends us statements.

Page 97

1 They shred them. They don't send them to you
 2 anymore.
 3 Q. What about the registers for your mother's 4 checking accounts?
 5 A. I don't have those anymore.
 6 Q. What became of them?
 7 A. I threw away a lot of old papers back in
 8 the summer. I just threw all that stuff out. I
 9 didn't think I would ever need it again.
 10 Q. What about credit card statements?
 11 Do you have any of those for your mother,
 12 accounts in her name?
 13 A. I have one for this month.
 14 Q. You don't have any others?
 15 A. No.
 16 Q. What became of the other statements?
 17 A. Every time I would pay something, I would 18 throw that bill away. I don't have space in my house
 19 to keep boxes of old checks, old papers and assorted
 20 other stuff.
 21 Q. What about documents relating to the 22 vehicle that you own right now? You own a Hummer, as 23 I understand?
 24 A. Yes.
 25 Q. Is that the only vehicle you own?

25 (Pages 94 to 97)

Page 100

1 A. That's all I own.
 2 Q. Do you have the title to that?
 3 A. Yes, I have the title to it.
 4 Q. All right, and do you have the 5 registration to it?
 6 A. Yes, I have the registration to it.
 7 Q. Do you have that registration in the 8 vehicle right now?
 9 A. Uh-huh.
 10 Q. Is the vehicle parked around here
 11 somewhere?
 12 A. It's here in North Carolina.
 13 Q. It's not parked out in our parking lot?
 14 A. No, it's not.
 15 Q. How did you get down here this morning?
 16 A. I bummed a ride with a friend of mine, and 17 she has to go to work in another hour. She has to 18 get me home.
 19 Q. Why didn't you drive your own vehicle down
 20 here?
 21 A. Because I was afraid somebody would try
 22 and take it. I was advised to move it.
 23 Q. Who gave you that advice?
 24 A. I'm not at liberty to say.
 25 Q. You're not at liberty to refuse to answer

1 advised you to hide your motor vehicle?
 2 A. I mostly decided it myself until I could
 3 be assured that it would left alone.
 4 Q. I'll just take that as a refusal to answer
 5 my question and just advise that that may lead to 6 some sanctions in this case against you.
 7 Now, I take it, then, you've hidden the 8 vehicle somewhere?
 9 A. I have it where I can get it. But I have 10 to be able to drive it. I don't want to wake up the 11 next morning and it's not sitting in my driveway and 12 I can't go anywhere.
 13 ~~I've got no intentions of doing anything~~
 14 ~~with it. It's mine. My mom bought it for me and I~~
 15 ~~intend to keep it.~~
 16 Q. Other than the two pieces of jewelry that 17 you said were in a lockbox, what other pieces of 18 jewelry do you own?
 19 A. I don't own any.
 20 Q. What have you done with the two pieces of 21 jewelry that were in the lockbox?
 22 A. I gave them to a lady at church because I
 23 don't wear jewelry.
 24 Q. As a gift?
 25 A. As a gift.

Page 101

1 our questions, so you need to tell me who it is that
 2 gave you that advice?
 3 A. I was told to move it.
 4 Q. By whom?
 5 A. Some friends.
 6 Q. Whose names are what?
 7 A. Some of my friends at church.
 8 Q. Whose names are what?
 9 What are the names of these people who
 10 gave you this advice to hide your vehicle?
 11 A. I have to be assured that nobody is going
 12 to take my only means of transportation. That is all 13 I have, the only way I have to get around. And to 14 allay anybody's fears, I have no intentions of 15 selling it. I don't trade a car every four or five 16 or six years.
 17 Q. Are you going to answer my question or are 18 you refusing to answer the question?
 19 A. I'm not going to get my friends in 20 trouble.
 21 Q. I'll just warn you that refusing to 22 provide an answer to a legitimate question in a
 23 deposition can lead to sanctions against you in this
 24 case, so I'll ask you one more time.
 25 What are the names of the people who

1 Q. And you did this after your mother died?
 2 A. It was mine to give.
 3 Q. So when did you give the jewelry to the
 4 lady at the church? Before or after your mother
 5 died?
 6 A. After my mom died.
 7 Q. And what were these two pieces of jewelry?
 8 What did they look like?
 9 ~~A. Two necklaces~~
 10 Q. Made of what?
 11 A. I don't know what they were made of. One
 12 was pink and the other one was kind of a purple-blue 13 stones or some kind. I don't know what they were.
 14 Q. Did you buy them?
 15 A. No, I didn't buy them.
 16 Q. Who had bought them?
 17 A. ~~My mom bought them. She bought them years~~
 18 ~~ago at Schifman's. It had the receipts with them.~~
 19 ~~Q. How much were the necklaces worth?~~
 20 ~~A. One of them was 300 and some dollars and~~
 21 ~~the other was three or 400 and some dollars.~~
 22 Q. That's what the receipts said?
 23 A. Uh-huh.
 24 Q. Do you have any correspondence from your 25 mother? Letters, cards?

26 (Pages 98 to 101)

Page 104

1 A. No. She had always sent me birthdays
2 through the years.
3 Q. Do you have any of those?
4 A. No. I don't keep old cards and stuff. I
5 keep them for about a year and then I pitch them out.
6 Q. So the answer to my question is no, you
7 don't have any correspondence or cards from your 8 mother?
9 A. No. Not now, I don't.
10 Q. Does your mother in her possessions have 11 any cards or notes or letters from you?
12 A. Yes, a large number of birthday cards.
13 Q. Where are they?
14 A. In the trash.
15 Q. You've thrown them away?
16 A. I cleaned out all of her papers and old
17 things and I threw them all out.
18 Q. What about medical bills relating to the 19 last time she was in the hospital at the time she
20 died?
21 A. I've not seen any medical bills yet.
22 Q. Where is mail for your mother going right
23 now?
24 A. It's going to Bellview Street, but I can't 25 get in to put mail inside, so I don't know who is

1 Q. As to this house that your mother lived
2 in, you apparently have entered into an agreement
3 with somebody to sell it?
4 A. Uh-huh.
5 Q. And that sale, you've been told by the 6 realtor, that that sale is now frozen because of this 7 lawsuit?
8 A. Yes.
9 Q. Are you willing to let the sale go through 10 and put the proceeds in escrow?
11 A. Yes. That would be fine.
12 Q. Be held by a neutral third person until 13 the lawsuits gets decided?
14 A. Yes.
15 Q. You would be willing to do that?
16 A. Yes. The man that wants it was very 17 adamant about buying it. He was very excited about 18 it. He wanted it to live in himself.
19 Q. Apart from meeting him when he agreed to 20 buy your house, did you know him otherwise?
21 A. I've never seen him before in my life.
22 Didn't know him. He came in looking around for about
23 30 minutes one day.
24 Q. What about your federal tax return? Did
25 you file a tax return for 2003?

Page 105

1 getting the mail.
2 Q. Why is it you can't get inside?
3 A. The lock has been changed.
4 Q. And who is it that changed the locks?
5 A. I have no idea.
6 Q. When is the last time you were in the
7 house?
8 A. I haven't been in it in two or three 9 weeks.
10 When I got all these papers, I've abided
11 by it. I haven't taken anything out of the house.
12 But somebody has been over there and changed the 13 locks.
14 Q. And you have no idea who did that?
15 A. I have no idea who did it. Somebody wrote
16 a sign and put it in the window and I don't know
17 whose writing it is.
18 Q. What does it say? What does the sign say?
19 A. Something about not being able to get in 20 the house. I didn't even read it all the other day.
21 I tried to turn the key in the lock and it wouldn't
22 work, so I left.
23 I have no idea whether anybody has taken
24 anything else out from when the last time I saw it or 25 not.

1 A. No.
2 Q. You have not?
3 A. No.
4 Q. And why is that?
5 A. I was told if I didn't have a job that I
6 did not have to file a tax return.
7 Q. When is the last ---
8 A. --- And I haven't been able to work.
9 Q. When is the last time you did file a tax
10 return?
11 A. I have not have a job. Early '90s.
12 MR. WALKER: Have you asked her
13 about employment and sources of income?
14 MS. SMITHERMAN: Uh-huh.
15 MR. WALKER: And how about where the 16 money went from the Alleghany sale?
17 MS. SMITHERMAN: Uh-huh.
18 Q. (Mr. Walker) The day that your mother
19 signed this will in -- was in March of 2003?
20 A. Uh-huh.
21 Q. Tell me about that day and how she got to 22 the attorney's office.
23 A. She called me on the phone that morning
24 and asked me could I take her down to George's 25 office. She had some papers she was making and would

27 (Pages 102 to 105)

Page 108

1 [REDACTED] and she her down there. I said, yeah, I'll
 2 [REDACTED]
 3 Q. [REDACTED] and so you drive over and pick
 4 [REDACTED]
 5 A. So I drive over and picked her up, and I
 6 carried her to the [REDACTED] and then I waited for her.
 7 Q. Where did you wait for her?
 8 A. I was going to wait in the lobby, but 9 George [REDACTED] me to wait in his office, so I went
 10 back and [REDACTED] the back of his office.
 11 Q. While he was talking to your mother?
 12 A. And they conducted their business between 13 the two of them.
 14 Q. In his office?
 15 A. In his office. His secretary was there.
 16 Q. And you were there?
 17 A. And I was sitting in the back.
 18 Q. Did you see your mother sign the will?
 19 A. [REDACTED] every paper that she
 20 signed [REDACTED] what she was signing. I
 21 [REDACTED] a POA.
 22 Q. [REDACTED] how Mr. Phillips discuss
 23 the contents of the will with your mother?
 24 A. No.
 25 Q. Okay.

1 what do I do when she's gone. How do I do a will,
 2 what do I do. I don't know.
 3 Q. Before that had you been to Mr. Phillips'
 4 office?
 5 A. No, I had not been there.
 6 Q. Had you talked to Mr. Phillips on the 7 telephone?
 8 A. No, I hadn't spoken with him on the phone.
 9 Q. What about Mr. Badgett?
 10 A. Like I said, I called down there to get an 11 appointment, but he was busy and in court all week
 12 that week and that was the first day he had 13 available.
 14 Q. I'm talking about before this will gets 15 signed.
 16 Had you had ---
 17 A. --- I hadn't been there before that.
 18 Q. Was your friend, Sam, with you when you
 19 were sitting in Mr. ---
 20 A. --- No, she had no knowledge of it.
 21 MR. WALKER: Do we have all the 22 exhibits marked?
 23 MS. SMITHERMAN: Uh-huh. I have one
 24 quick question.
 25 EXAMINATION

Page 109

1 A. He went and got his notary and the other
 2 secretaries that were there for witnesses.
 3 Q. But you were also there?
 4 A. I was sitting and watching. That was all
 5 I did.
 6 Q. Now ---
 7 A. --- And you can ask any of those people
 8 that.
 9 Q. Now, how long were you there in Mr.
 10 Phillips' office?
 11 A. Probably an hour or so. I don't know. I
 12 don't recall the length of time.
 13 Q. How many other times did you go to Mr.
 14 Phillips' office with your mother?
 15 A. That's the only other time I've ever been 16 down there with her.
 17 Q. But you've been down there other times.
 18 You said you've been down there to meet with Mr.
 19 Badgett.
 20 A. I went after mom passed away. I had an 21 appointment with Mr. Badgett.
 22 Q. Right.
 23 A. I was trying to get to him a week or so
 24 before Mom passed away. The doctors were telling me
 25 she didn't have very many days. I needed to know

1 BY MS. SMITHERMAN:
 2 Q. Did your mom have a diamond engagement
 3 ring?
 4 A. That is one thing I noticed missing from
 5 the lockbox.
 6 When I went to get the will out and take
 7 it to Mr. Badgett's office, I remembered she said her
 8 rings were in there. I went through everything in 9 that box and her rings were gone, and I do not know
 10 what happened to her rings. I was going to bury them
 11 with her.
 12 Q. Did you find them anywhere in the house?
 13 A. No, I did not find them in the house. I
 14 couldn't locate them anyplace.
 15 EXAMINATION
 16 BY MR. WALKER:
 17 Q. And you ended up having a meeting with the 18 clerk of court at some point, an assistant clerk, at 19 the courthouse?
 20 A. When I had to probate the will, yes. I
 21 had to call and make an appointment, and it took two
 22 or three weeks to get an appointment.
 23 Q. Okay.
 24 A. And I went down for that.
 25 Q. And did you fill out forms for the clerk?

28 (Pages 106 to 109)

Page 112

1 A. Yes. The lady asked me to answer the
2 questions. I answered the questions and signed it,
3 and she said that's all I need. It took about 10
4 minutes.
5 Q. And why is it that no estate was opened?
6 A. I was told by Mr. Badgett to probate the 7 will. He said you tell the lady you're just there to 8 probate it. That's all you're going to do. And so I
9 did what I was told.
10 MR. WALKER: Well, I guess the only
11 other thing is our request to you to produce
12 documents about your vehicle, because we do want to 13 know more about this vehicle and you were asked to 14 produce documents about your ownership of it and that 15 would include at least the registration and the 16 title.
17 THE WITNESS: Uh-huh.
18 MR. WALKER: And so here on the 19 record, I'm asking you to ---
20 THE WITNESS: --- I can get those.
21 MR. WALKER: --- To copy those ---
22 THE WITNESS: --- I'll be glad to
23 get you a copy of those.
24 MR. WALKER: --- Send them to me --
25 send them to me in the mail immediately ---

CERTIFICATION

I, Becky G. Lusk, Notary Public in and for the

1 THE WITNESS: --- Okay.
2 MR. WALKER: --- So that we don't
3 have to get into an argument about that.
4 THE WITNESS: I'll get them to you
5 this week.
6 MR. WALKER: Fine.
7 Okay, I don't think we've got any other
8 questions, then.
9 And if you do -- I understand that you
10 don't have a lawyer right now. Is that correct?
11 THE WITNESS: No, I do not. I have 12 someone I'm going to see after a while to see if they 13 can do this.
14 MR. WALKER: If you do hire a
15 lawyer, please make sure to give that lawyer my name
16 and phone number and ask them to get in touch with 17 me.
18 THE WITNESS: He will have all the 19 above.
20 MR. WALKER: Very good.
21 All right, thank you for coming today. I
22 think we're all done.
23 WHEREUPON,
24 at 12:14 o'clock p.m. the deposition was adjourned.
